Livestock Lab Site Prospects Being Narrowed

Fayette Countians Make Bid for It at St. Louis Hearing

The big question here now is: "Will they or won't they select Fayette County for further consideration as the site for the new government livestock biological research laboratory?"

Sam Marting, a widely known Hereford cattle breeder, and W. W. Montgomery, county agent, came back from St. Louis Thursday after placing Fayette County's advantages before the committee named to select the site.

While they maintained a strictly non-committal attitude toward the committee's ultimate intentions, they did say the site-selectors listened to their presentation with more interest than was accorded many of the others.

Marting and Montgomery went to the committee hearing in St. Louis as representatives of Fayette County in general and the Area Development Committee of the Chamber of Commerce in particular. They took with them a carefully compiled summary of Fayette County's qualifications as a site for the laboratory which was given to the members of the committee.

ONE OF THE clouds on the horizon, so far as Fayette County is concerned, is the make-up of the committee; only three of its 10 members live east of the Mississippi River — two in Illinois and one in Connecticut.

There has been considerable speculation among Area Development Committee members whether the committee would first select the state and then the actual site or whether it would turn its attention primarily on the site itself.

An Associated Press report from St. Louis today said the committee probably would sift the bids to 10 sites and then make further studies of them. The Associated Press report said in full:

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Sites under consideration for an $18 million government animal disease laboratory will be narrowed from 68 to 10 for an inspection trip next week by a committee named by the Department of Agriculture to select the site.

The 10-member committee, swamped by statistics, brochures and arguments by delegations, today began the third day of a hearing on the matter. The hearing will not tomorrow.

Don Collins of Kit Carson, Colo., committee chairman and president of the American National Cattlemen's Assn., said the committee hoped to leave St. Louis Sunday for a personal inspection

More Trouble behind Iron Curtain

Polish Workers Riot; 38 Killed

BERLIN (AP)—A bitter workers' uprising in the major Polish city of Poznan took 38 lives and left 270 wounded, Warsaw's Communist government announced today. The revolt has been crushed and today the industrial city was reported back to normal.

In the West, diplomats speculated what the effect would be on the Kremlin leaders' campaign to downgrade Stalin and ease the steel glove grip on the Soviet's satellite subjects.

The trouble exploded with a fury which recalled the uprising of East Germans of June 17, 1953, and the pro-Stalin student demonstrations in Tiflis this year when up to 100 persons were killed.

Western businessmen in Poznan to attend a big trade fair in the industrial city of 300,000 were amazed eyewitnesses to the violent outburst that began at 7 a. m. and evidently continued all day yesterday.

Solid lines of marchers 20 abreast waving banners demanding "bread" swarmed through the streets, captured and burned secret police headquarters, liberated prisoners, attacked Communist party headquarters, destroyed the jamming station that interferes with Western broadcasts. They raised a white flag over City Hall.

VISITORS told of tanks rolling through the streets, of bullet blasts at the milling workers, of jet fighters wining overhead and of a tight curfew clamped on the city by Polish authorities.

In some instances, it was reported, troops and police failed to take action against the demonstrators and even gave up their arms to them. Some of the marchers, armed, returned the fire of troops. They succeeded at one time in capturing some tanks.

Willard Barber, counselor of the American Embassy in Warsaw, said as far as he knew riots had occurred only in Poznan.

He reported that three or four American businessmen were known to have been in Poznan during the riots. He could not identify them, but believed they have left the city safely.

At least 30,000 persons were reported in the marching, milling crowds which started the demonstration by upsetting cars.

"Out with the Russians," one of the marchers was heard to shout in German. Poznan was a German city, Posen, before World War I.

Warsaw radio indicated a wide roundup of instigators of the uprising was underway.

It said "the workers are expressing their indignation at the diversionists who, making use of provocative rumors, get reactionary gangs and groups of misled people to come out against the peoples' government."

Ohio Senate Debates Buying Ceder Point

GOP Leader Mechem Levels Attack Against Gov. Lausche's Stand

COLUMBUS (AP)—The legislative battle over the proposed state purchase of the Lake Erie resort of Cedar Point erupted on the Ohio Senate floor today.

The Republican majority leader, Sen. C. Stanley Mechem of Nelsonville, demanded that Democrat Gov. Frank J. Lausche withdraw his message to the legislature on the Cedar Point proposal. The governor did not do so.

Mechem declared the governor's message "is a brazen attempt to blame the leadership of the General Assembly whatever we do. When the governor sent us a message which is impossible to understand and full of double talk and double meaning, I don't like it."

The Republican leader said Lausche's message proposed on one hand that the state buy Cedar Point now and on the other hand proposed a study committee to consider the proposal further. He added:

"IT SEEMS TO me he is on both sides of this question. The Senate deserves to know what the governor wants done."

Sens. Frank King (D-Lucas) and Joseph Avellone (D-Cuyahoga) retorted they saw nothing inconsistent in the governor's position and that he was leaving the matter of the resort's purchase up to the Legislature.

Before the Mechem outburst, the agenda for today's session (at first thought to be only a routine affair) boiled down to three simple matters:

1. Rewrite the bank tax law to which the courts objected and real impose it on shares of financial institutions.
2. Set up a $12 million state appropriation to cover the tax losses of local governments this year and cover more than $10 million worth of tax rebate certificates (Please Turn to Page Twelve)

Fuel Barge Blows Up at Frisco Dock

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—An oil barge blew up here last night, hurling two crew men into the water and spreading a fierce fire along a pier.

Two fire boats and dozens of fire department pieces quickly controlled the dangerous blaze on the San Francisco waterfront.

"It blew up in three quick blasts," said John de Haan, 49, crewman on the Navy boiler Kern, anchored nearby.

He said the Tidewater Associated Oil Co. barge was unloading fuel oil.

"A man was blown off the barge by the blast, and I pulled him out of the water," he said. He was Alfred Johnson.

Stewart Ford, ambulance attendant, said Johnson was taken to San Francisco Hospital with first, second and third degree burns on the face.

Fred Witter, 50, also pulled from the water, was taken to the hospital with severe burns.

Fire Chief Frank Kelly estimated over-all damage at $1 million. The blast shot flames 400 feet into the air and the fire lashed through windows of a machine shop on the shore end of the pier.

About 75 men working in the shop fled safely.

LEBANON (AP)—The town of Morrow will be one of the biggest beneficiaries from the $1,192,000 estate of Mrs. Carrie Scheurer Smith of Morrow, who died recently.

It provided a bequest of $84,644.2 for the town of Morrow.

British Frogman Said Red Prisoner

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—A West German newspaper said today British frogman Lionel Crabbe is a Soviet prisoner, is held in a Moscow jail and may be tried by the Russians for espionage.

Bild, a paper with more than two million circulation, said it obtained this information in Paris from a left-wing French politician who said he got it from a high Soviet officer during a recent banquet in Moscow.

Negotiators Trying To Balk Steel Strike

Deadline Near For Tax Paying

10 Percent Penalty Goes on after June 30

With the deadline for paying property taxes only hours away in Fayette County, Treasurer Charles A. Fabb admitted he was getting concerned over the possible increase in delinquency.

At mid-day Friday, Fabb went over the books and said that approximately $80,000 in taxes due by midnight Saturday had not yet been paid.

Last year, when the books were closed, there was only about $10,000 unpaid. It was this comparison that was causing the treasurer so much concern. He said he did not see how it would be possible to get down to last year's figure in the time left.

While it is important to the county that taxes be paid, Fabb pointed out that it is also important to the property owners. He reminded again that a penalty of 10 percent goes on all unpaid taxes automatically under state law when the books are closed—that would be an additional $8,000 the property owners would have to dig out of their own pockets—on the basis of the unpaid taxes at noon Friday.

Since the last of the utilities companies sent their checks in Thursday, most of the unpaid taxes now are assessed against individual property owners. After a hurried glance at the tax bills of the forgetful and put-it-offs, Fabb said the unpaid taxes run all the way from a few cents to around $300.

HE COMMENTED that "it would be better for these people to borrow the money from the banks to pay their taxes, because the bank interest would certainly be less than the 10 percent penalty they will have to pay." He added, significantly, that unpaid taxes become a lien on the property and eventually will have to be paid.

Fabb, who has been busy on the telephone reminding those who have not yet paid their taxes that June 30 is the deadline for this collection period, said he expected a last-minute rush to beat the deadline Saturday morning.

Those who miss that, however, still have a few hours to get under the wire; they can send in their checks by mail. The treasurer said that checks dated before midnight June 30 could be accepted and added that he expected—and hoped—there would be a stack of mail at the office Monday morning.

Just how the collection will come out this time probably will not be known accurately until mid-July because, Fabb explained, the payments will all have to be analyzed district by district before the books can be turned over to Auditor Harry Allen.

State Ready To Join Hunt For Slayer

COLUMBUS (AP)—The state is preparing to employ its various law enforcement agencies to assist in the manhunt for killer Alfred Wilson, Gov. Frank J. Lausche indicated today.

The 37-year-old truck driver killed three residents of Trumbull County last week and has since been the subject of an intensive manhunt.

The governor said he had conferred with Adj. Gen. Leo M. Kreber of the Ohio National Guard, Col. George Mingle, superintendent of the state highway patrol, and Capt. Floyd Moon, of the patrol, to discuss methods of providing maximum assistance to Herbert Thomas and Robert Stockdale, Trumbull and Portage county sheriffs.

"I have issued orders to the state highway patrol to provide the necessary men within the personnel of that division needed to cope with whatever situation might develop in running down the offender," Lausche said.

"It appears that within 45 minutes the state can have at least 35 highway patrolmen on the scene and within 2½ hours at least 75. If any situation should develop where more men are needed than the highway patrol and the other enforcement units can supply, the National Guard will be available."

Ike Aides Winning Aid Fund Battles

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration today sought to stave off new Senate efforts to cut the $4½ billion foreign aid authorization bill after winning every test in the opening day of voting.

Majority Leader Johnson (D-Tex.) announced the Senate would run again into a late night session if necessary to pass the big measure and send it into conference with the House. If work on it is not completed tonight, he promised a session tomorrow.

The Senate worked more than 11 hours yesterday on the measure tagged by President Eisenhower as of major importance to free world strength and security. It handed him important triumphs on these four votes:

1. A 58-27 defeat of an amendment by Sen. Long (D-La) to cut the bill to $2.7 billion, the sum Congress appropriated last year.
2. A 50-38 defeat of an amendment by Sen. Bridges (R-NH), chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, to cut off all aid to Yugoslavia.
3. A 45-43 defeat of an amendment by Sen. Young (R-ND) to clamp import quotas on textiles and farm products in surplus in this country.
4. A 52-36 defeat of an amendment by Sen. Olin (D-Iowa) to put a temporary import quota on textiles.

All of the rollcalls cut across party lines. On the bitterest dispute of the session, the Yugoslav amendment, more Democrats than Republicans supported the administration. The Bridges proposal was defeated by votes of 29 Democrats and 21 Republicans. It was supported by 23 Republicans and 15 Democrats.

Sen. John W. Bricker (R-Ohio) voted in favor of two defeated amendments to the foreign aid bill designed to cut off aid to Yugoslavia and reduce the foreign aid appropriation by $1.7 billion.

His Ohio Republican colleague, George H. Bender, voted against the amendment to cut off aid to Yugoslavia and was listed as paired against the amendment to reduce foreign aid.

The hottest debate swirled about the amendment to chop off all aid to Yugoslavia.

Its backers assailed Marshal Tito for "playing footsie" with the new Russian leaders.

Defeat of the Bridges amendment had the effect of leaving in the bill a provision giving Eisenhower 90 days to decide whether aid to Tito should be continued.

Sen. O'Mahoney taunted Republicans who supported the Bridges amendment, demanding: "Won't you take the word of the man all the Republicans want to run for President?"

Teachers Let Fly at Parents For Kids' Drinking, Cheating

WASHINGTON (AP)—School teachers replying to a nationwide survey let fly at parents today as mostly to blame for student misdeeds, including drinking, profanity, cheating and impudence.

The teachers, quizzed by the National Education Assn., said they believed student drinking had "definitely increased" in the last 10 years, along with classroom insolence and failure to carry out assignments.

Almost all of them, however, made it clear they think most American children are all right. A trifle over 5 per cent said their students last year were "often" or "almost always" difficult to handle. The rest said they were either "exceptionally" or "reasonably" well behaved.

It was when they came to re-sons for misbehavior that the teachers tore into parents.

Among 17 reasons which the NEA asked them to rank in importance, the largest percentages gave first place to these three: irresponsible parents, unsatisfactory home conditions (low income, broken families, etc.) and lack of supervision because mother working.

Much smaller percentages blamed television and movies, automobiles, undesirable hangouts near school and lack of teacher authority to punish offenders.

More important than any of these, in the teachers' opinion, were lack of special classes for retarded children and overcrowding of schoolrooms in general. Replies indicated that misbehavior is likely to double when a class enrollment goes from 30 to 40.

New Pact Sought At Conferences

Saturday Midnight Is Decision Deadline

NEW YORK (AP)—Steel wage negotiating teams wound up another session today with no indication of any progress toward staving off a nationwide strike of 650,000 steel workers tomorrow midnight.

But as steel furnaces cooled, negotiators arranged for further talks to write a new contract.

On emerging from the session David J. McDonald, United Steelworkers president, and John A. Stephens, chief industry negotiator, said only that they would continue to keep in touch and would meet later today or Saturday.

As gradual cooling-off operations set in to prevent damage to the giant steel furnaces, Secretary of Labor James Mitchell said the government had no immediate plan of invoking the Taft-Hartley Act to prevent a shutdown.

It is estimated that the cooling-off process, which takes about three days, plus an even longer time for rekindling the fires if a sudden settlement is reached, will cost the industry 500,000 tons of steel production valued at 65 million dollars.

The union also pressed its strike plans, choosing picket line captains in various plants and scheduling meetings of two top policy-making groups.

THE UNION'S 32-member Executive Board meets today to consider the situation.

The Wage Policy Committee, with 170 rank-and-file members, meets three hours later to hear McDonald report on the status of the bargaining. It has the power to approve or reject any agreement reached by negotiators.

McDonald's invitation to the presidents of the 12 major companies to join the talks came in reply to an address last night by Ben Moreell, chairman of the Jones and Laughlin Corp.

Even with time running out and the fires going down, "reasonable men can always settle honest differences," said Moreell, speaking in behalf of the industry.

Moreell denied a union charge that the companies were conspiring to force a lockout in face of the union's traditional "no contract, no work" policy.

"That charge is not true," he said. "The steel companies of America exist to produce steel, not lie idle."

McDonald said it was the companies that were "shutting their property down — no steelworkers have walked out."

Today's News In Brief

NEW YORK (AP)—Eagle Scout Richard Lee Campbell made plans today for the longest camping trip of his Scout career—a trip to the South Pole with Adm. Richard E. Byrd.

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver's campaign manager says that if Adlai E. Stevenson isn't nominated for President on the second ballot at the Democratic National Convention, the Tennessee senator will win on the fifth or sixth call in the voting.

Livestock Lab Site Prospects Being Narrowed

Fayette Countians Make Bid for It at St. Louis Hearing

The big question here now is:
"Will they or won't they select Fayette County for further consideration as the site for the new government livestock biological research laboratory?"

Sam Marting, a widely known Hereford cattle breeder, and W.
W. Montgomery, county agent, came back from St. Louis Thursday after placing Fayette County's advantages before the committee named to select the site.

While they maintained a strictly non-committal attitude toward the committee's ultimate intentions, they did say the site-selectors listened to their presentation with more interest than was accorded many of the others.

Marting and Montgomery went to the committee hearing in St.
Louis as representatives of Fayette County in general and the Area Development Committee of the Chamber of Commerce in particular. They took with them a carefully compiled summary of Fayette County's qualifications as a site for the laboratory which was given to the members of the committee.

ONE OF THE clouds on the horizon, so far as Fayette County is concerned, is the make-up of the committee; only three of its 10 members live east of the Mississippi River — two in Illinois and one in Connecticut.

There has been considerable speculation among Area Development Committee members whether the committee would first select the state and then the actual site or whether it would turn its attention primarily on the site itself.

An Associated Press report from St. Louis today said the committee probably would sift the bids to 10 sites and then make further studies of them. The Associated Press report said in full:

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Sites under consideration for an $18 million government animal disease laboratory will be narrowed from 68 to 10 for an inspection trip next week by a committee named by the Department of Agriculture to select the site.

The 10-member committee, swamped by statistics, brochures and arguments by delegations backing the various locations, today began the third day of a hearing on the matter.
The hearing will end tomorrow.

Don Collins of Kit Carson, Colo., committee chairman and presi-

"Out with the Russians," one of the marchers was heard to shout

Warsaw radio indicated a wide roundup of instigators of the up-

It said "the workers are ex-

Circleville To Be Used In Road Study

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Highway Department said today it would conduct a study in Circleville next month to determine the economic effects of a highway bypassing a town.

Director S. O. Linnell said Circleville was chosen as a representative community because of its location, population and its distance from a turnpike.

A $3,162,000 bypass on U. S. 23 is being constructed around Circleville and Linnell said another study will be conducted after the bypass is completed.

The bypass is one of the last sections of U. S. 3 being converted to four lanes from Columbus to Portsmouth. In addition, U. S.
22 runs through Circleville carrying a heavy load of east-west traffic. Two state highways, Routes 56 and 188, also enter the city.

The study will include tax records, hotel and motel registrations, parking and retail sales.

On-the-street interviews will begin July 9 and continue for four weeks. Persons interviewed will be asked their home address and the purpose of their business in the city.

As yet, Linnell said, there are no concrete facts to support or deny claims of adverse economic effects of such a bypass.

Hundreds of Millions To Die In Nuclear War, Expert Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—If the Communists choose nuclear war, hundreds of millions of persons living in the Red empire (and some in bordering free nations) may be exterminated by the drifting death of radioactive poison loosed by exploding American bombs.

This was the picture showing through the hitherto secret testimony of the Army's chief of research and development, Lt.
Gen. James M. Gavin, made public here last night.

The released testimony did not show whether Gavin was asked about the effect of Russian bombs on this country, but Sen. Symington (D-Mo.) cited an unofficial estimate that 110 bombs hitting this country could destroy or maim 70 million people. The population of America is about 167 million.

A transcript of testimony given by Gavin last month before the Senate subcommittee investigating air power disclosed this:

Sen. Duff (R-Pa.) asked what would happen if the United States strategic air force made an attack in force on Russia and winds carried contamination outward from the detonating points of nuclear bombs.

GAVIN REPLIED that "current planning estimates run on the order of several hundred million deaths."

Where the contamination fell would depend on wind direction, the general said. If it blew to the southeast, the deaths would be mostly in Russia. The population of Russia is about 193 million.

But the radioactivity fallout from the bomb clouds also would extend "into the Japanese area and down into the Philippine area," said the general. This obviously meant that it would cross part of populous China, where perhaps 600 million persons live.

The knowledge of this, Duff observed, should convince Russia that it would not be "wise to start a nuclear war with our capacity" to retaliate.

There was consternation today when it was realized that the general's predictions had been released for publication.

There were hurried meetings and telephone talks between Defense Department, Army and atomic energy officials.

Maj. Gen. Guy S. Meloy, Army director of public information, said he learned with "shocked surprise" that the testimony was being released. He said that if this had been realized earlier, the Army would have protested publication.

Democrat Gov. Frank J. Lausche withdraw his message to the legislature on the Cedar Point proposal. The governor did not do so.

Mechem declared the governor's message "is a brazen attempt to blame the leadership of the General Assembly whatever we do. When the governor sent us a message which is impossible to understand and full of double talk and double meaning, I don't like it."

The Republican leader said Lausche's message proposed on one hand that the state buy Cedar Point now and on the other hand proposed a study committee to consider the proposal further. He added:

"IT SEEMS TO me he is on both sides of this question. The Senate deserves to know what the governor wants done."

Sens. Frank King (D-Lucas) and Joseph Avellone (D-Cuyahoga) retorted they saw nothing inconsistent in the governor's position and that he was leaving the matter of the resort's purchase up to the Legislature.

Before the Mechem outburst, the agenda for today's session (at first thought to be only a routine affair) boiled down to three simple matters:

1. Rewrite the bank tax law to which the courts objected and reimpose it on shares of financial institutions.
2. Set up a $12 million state appropriation to cover the tax losses of local governments this year and cover more than $10 million worth of tax rebate certificates

Fuel Barge Blows Up at Frisco Dock

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—An oil barge blew up here last night, hurting two crew men into the water and spreading a fierce fire along a pier.

Two fire boats and dozens of fire department pieces quickly controlled the dangerous blaze on the San Francisco waterfront.

"It blew up in three quick blasts," said John de Haan, 49, crewman on the Navy boiler Kern, anchored nearby.

He said the Tidewater Associated Oil Co. barge was unloading fuel oil.

"A man was blown off the barge by the blast, and I pulled him out of the water," he said.
He was Alfred Johnson.

Stewart Ford, ambulance attendant, said Johnson was taken to San Francisco Hospital with first, second and third degree burns on the face.

Fred Witter, 50, also pulled from the water, was taken to the hospital with severe burns.

Fire Chief Frank Kelly estimated over-all damage at $1 million.
The blast shot flames 400 feet into the air and the fire lashed through windows of a machine shop on the shore end of the pier.

About 75 men working in the shop fled safely.

British Frogman Said Red Prisoner

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—A West German newspaper said today British frogman Lionel Crabbe is a Soviet prisoner, is held in a Moscow jail and may be tried by the Russians for espionage.

Bild, a paper with more than two million circulation, said it obtained this information in Paris from a left-wing French politician who said he got it from a high Soviet officer during a recent banquet in Moscow.

Negotiators Trying To Balk Steel Strike

Deadline Near For Tax Paying

10 Percent Penalty Goes on after June 30

With the deadline for paying property taxes only hours away in Fayette County, Treasurer Charles
A. Fabb admitted he was getting concerned over the possible increase in delinquency.

At mid-day Friday, Fabb went over the books and said that approximately $80,000 in taxes due by midnight Saturday had not yet been paid.

Last year, when the books were closed, there was only about $10-000 unpaid. It was this comparison that was causing the treasurer so much concern. He said he did not see how it would be possible to get down to last year's figure in the time left.

While it is important to the county that taxes be paid, Fabb pointed out that it is also important to the property owners. He reminded again that a penalty of 10 percent goes on all unpaid taxes automatically under state law when the books are closed—that would be an additional $8,000 the property owners would have to dig out of their own pockets—on the basis of the unpaid taxes at noon Friday.

Since the last of the utilities companies sent their checks in Thursday, most of the unpaid taxes now are assessed against individual property owners. After a hurried glance at the tax bills of the forfeited and put-off, Fabb said the unpaid taxes run all the way from a few cents to around $500.

HE COMMENTED that "it would be better for these people to borrow the money from the banks to pay their taxes, because the bank interest would certainly be less than the 10 percent penalty they will have to pay." He added, significantly, that unpaid taxes become a lien on the property and eventually will have to be paid.

Fabb, who has been busy on the telephone reminding those who have not yet paid their taxes that June 30 is the deadline for this collection period, said he expected a last-minute rush to beat the deadline Saturday morning.

Those who miss that, however, still have a few hours to get under the wire; they can send in their checks by mail. The treasurer said that checks dated before midnight June 30 could be accepted and added that he expected—and hoped—there would be a stack of mail at the office Monday morning.

Just how the collection will come out this time probably will not be known accurately until mid-July because, Fabb explained, the payments will all have to be analyzed district by district before the books can be turned over to Auditor Harry Allen.

State Ready To Join Hunt For Slayer

COLUMBUS (AP)—The state is preparing to employ its various law enforcement agencies to assist in the manhunt for killer Alfred Wilson, Gov. Frank J. Lausche indicated today.

The 37-year-old truck driver killed three residents of Trumbull County last week and has since been the subject of an intensive manhunt.

The governor said he had conferred with Adj. Gen. Leo M. Kreber of the Ohio National Guard, Col. George Mingle, superintendent of the state highway patrol, and Capt. Floyd Moon, of the patrol, to discuss methods of providing maximum assistance to Herbert Thomas and Robert Stockdale, Trumbull and Portage county sheriffs.

"I have issued orders to the state highway patrol to provide the necessary men within the personnel of that division needed to cope with whatever situation might develop in running down the offender," Lausche said.

"It appears that within 45 minutes the state can have at least 35 highway patrolmen on the scene and within 2½ hours at least 75. If any situation should develop where more men are needed than the highway patrol and the other enforcement units can supply, the National Guard will be available."

WITH HOPES FADING that a steel strike will be averted, picket signs have been prepared. Above Louis N. Pierro (left), general committeeman, and Evan I. Jones, president of Local 1272, United Steelworkers, display a couple of signs in Pittsburgh. In background, smoke stacks of Jones & Laughlin plant. (International)

Ike Aides Winning Aid Fund Battles

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration today sought to stave off new Senate efforts to cut the $4½ billion foreign aid authorization bill after winning every test in the opening day of voting.

Majority Leader Johnson (D-Tex.) announced the Senate would run again into a late night session if necessary to pass the big measure and send it into conference with the House. If work on it is not completed tonight, he promised a session tomorrow.

The Senate worked more than 11 hours yesterday on the measure tagged by President Eisenhower as of major importance to free world strength and security.
It handed him important triumphs on these four votes:

1. A 58-27 defeat of an amendment by Sen. Long (D-La.) to cut the bill to $2.7 billion, the sum Congress appropriated last year.
2. A 50-38 defeat of an amendment by Sen. Bridges (R-NH), chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, to cut off all aid to Yugoslavia.
3. A 45-43 defeat of an amendment by Sen. Young (R-ND) to clamp import quotas on textiles and farm products in surplus in this country.
4. A 52-36 defeat of an amendment by Sen. Olin D. Johnson (D-SC) to put a temporary import quota on textiles.

WASHINGTON (AP)—School teachers replying to a nationwide survey let fly at parents today as mostly to blame for student misdeeds, including drinking, profanity, cheating and impudence.

The teachers, quizzed by the National Education Assn., said they believed student drinking had "definitely increased" in the last 10 years, along with classroom insolence and failure to carry out assignments.

Almost all of them, however, made it clear they think most American children are all right.
A trifle over 5 per cent said their students last year were "often" or "almost always" difficult to handle. The rest said they were either "exceptionally" or "reasonably" well behaved.

New Pact Sought At Conferences

Saturday Midnight Is Decision Deadline

NEW YORK (AP)—Steel wage negotiating teams wound up another session today with no indication of any progress toward settling off a nationwide strike of 650,000 steel workers tomorrow midnight.

But as steel furnaces cooled, negotiators arranged for further talks to write a new contract.

On emerging from the session
David J. McDonald, United Steelworkers' president, and John A. Stephens, chief industry negotiator, said only that they would continue to keep in touch and would meet later today or Saturday.

As gradual cooling-off operations set in to prevent damage to the giant steel furnaces, Secretary of Labor James Mitchell said the government had no immediate plan of invoking the Taft-Hartley Act to prevent a shutdown.

It is estimated that the cooling-off process, which takes about three days, plus an even longer time for rekindling the fires if a sudden settlement is reached, will cost the industry 500,000 tons of steel production valued at 65 million dollars.

The union also pressed its strike plans, choosing picket line captains in various plants and scheduling meetings of two top policy-making groups.

THE UNION'S 32-member Executive Board meets today to consider the situation.

The Wage Policy Committee, with 170 rank-and-file members, meets three hours later to hear McDonald report on the status of the bargaining. It has the power to approve or reject any agreement reached by negotiators.

McDonald's invitation to the presidents of the 12 major companies to join the talks came in reply to an address last night by Ben Moreell, chairman of the Jones and Laughlin Corp.

Even with time running out and the fires going down, "reasonable men can always settle honest differences," said Moreell, speaking in behalf of the industry.

Moreell denied a union charge that the companies were conspiring to force a lockout in face of the union's traditional "no contract, no work" policy.

"That charge is not true," he said. "The steel companies of America exist to produce steel, not lie idle."

McDonald said it was the companies that were "shutting their property down — no steelworkers have walked out."

Farm Bureau's Planners Get Fayette Views

Resolutions Passed Here Handed Over To Policy Makers

Nearly a dozen resolutions passed by members of the Fayette County Farm Bureau were laid before a policy development meeting in Columbus Friday by Glenn I. Smith, its representative to the conference.

At the meeting were representatives (many of them presidents) of county Farm Bureaus all over Ohio.

Frank Alexander, organization director for the Farm Bureau here, explained that the meeting was designed to sift through all the resolutions from the county Farm Bureaus and from them draw up a summary for guidance of the Resolutions Committee for the annual state convention.

In substance, this meeting is to pave the way for one phase of the annual state meeting, Alexander pointed out.

Friday's conference is being held in the Ohio Union on the Ohio State University campus.

SMITH, a director of the Farm Bureau here, has been instructed to take notes on the resolutions presented by other county representatives and the general discussions and bring back some suggestions on "what the folks here can do," Alexander said.

Among the resolutions approved by Fayette County Farm Bureau members Smith is to toss into the hopper at the meeting is one declaring opposition to the personal property tax on grain stored under government loan; one favoring better rural mail service; a study of an over-all plan for rural zoning; an expansion of driver training, especially for young people and better rural-urban relations.

Before he left, Smith said he had no idea of how many of suggestions from Fayette County would be passed along to the state convention's resolutions committee.

The summary of the attitudes of Fayette County Farm Bureau members was compiled on the basis of discussions and resolutions adopted by Farm Bureau councils during the past year, Alexander said.

Alexander returned Friday night from a meeting of organization directors from all over the state at Indian Lake.

Out of this meeting, he said, he got some ideas for betterment of the Farm Bureau here. He described as one of the most important a plan for greater participation of the members in the overall program, such as the meeting at which they may express themselves on issues of the day.

Detour on Routes At Circleville

A detour has been established on U. S. Route 22 and State Route 56 in the western edge of Circleville, where grading and other work are underway in connection with the four-lane by-pass of Route 23 which is being constructed around the western edge of the city.

Not only is the by-pass work underway, but a new Scioto River bridge is to be built. A runaround will be established during the bridge construction, it is indicated.

The detour is around W. Main St. west of the railroad tracks and over Western Ave. and Mound St., so that only a few blocks are added by the detour.

Farm Bureau's Planners Get Fayette Views

Resolutions Passed Here Handed Over To Policy Makers

Nearly a dozen resolutions passed by members of the Fayette County Farm Bureau were laid before a policy development meeting in Columbus Friday by Glenn L. Smith, its representative to the conference.

At the meeting were representatives (many of them presidents) of county Farm Bureaus all over Ohio.

Frank Alexander, organization director for the Farm Bureau here, explained that the meeting was designed to sift through all the resolutions from the county Farm Bureaus and from them draw up a summary for guidance of the Resolutions Committee for the annual state convention.

In substance, this meeting is to pave the way for one phase of the annual state meeting, Alexander pointed out.

Friday's conference is being held in the Ohio Union on the Ohio State University campus.

SMITH, a director of the Farm Bureau here, has been instructed to take notes on the resolutions presented by other county representatives and the general discussions and bring back some suggestions on "what the folks here can do," Alexander said.

Among the resolutions approved by Fayette County Farm Bureau members Smith is to toss into the hopper at the meeting is one declaring opposition to the personal property tax on grain stored under government loan; one favoring better rural mail service; a study of an over-all plan for rural zoning; an expansion of driver training, especially for young people and better rural-urban relations.

Before he left, Smith said he had no idea of how many of suggestions from Fayette County would be passed along to the state convention's resolutions committee.

The summary of the attitudes of Fayette County Farm Bureau members was compiled on the basis of discussions and resolutions adopted by Farm Bureau councils during the past year, Alexander said.

Alexander returned Friday night from a meeting of organization directors from all over the state at Indian Lake.

Out of this meeting, he said, he got some ideas for betterment of the Farm Bureau here. He described as one of the most important a plan for greater participation of the members in the overall program, such as the meeting at which they may express themselves on issues of the day.

Four Are Arrested Here on Thursday

Three speeders, one excessive noise offender and one truck driver who was trailing another vehicle too close for safety, fell into the hands of officers here Thursday. Their hearings were scheduled for Municipal Court.

Ralph E. Medary, New Holland, was picked up for excessive noise, and Robert D. Riley, Route 6 and Richard H. Young, Nicholasville, Ky., were halted at 45 miles an hour on Clinton Avenue.

Detour on Routes At Circleville

A detour has been established on U. S. Route 22 and State Route 56 in the western edge of Circleville, where grading and other work are underway in connection with the four-lane by-pass of Route 23 which is being constructed around the western edge of the city.

Not only is the by-pass work underway, but a new Scioto River bridge is to be built. A runaround will be established during the bridge construction, it is indicated. The detour is around W. Main St. west of the railroad tracks and over Western Ave. and Mount St., so that only a few blocks are added by the detour.

Step under an Alcoa Aluminum Roof on a hot day. You'll notice what tests have proved. It's cooler under an aluminum roof because aluminum reflects hot sunshine.
There is still another quality which aluminum gives you. It defies the weather, resists corrosion and practically eliminates upkeep. Once Alcoa roofing or siding is up you can forget it.
Have a look at your buildings and see if they don't need an Alcoa roof that will take care of itself . . . and better care of your stock. The next time you are in town—stop in and see our stocks of Alcoa roofing.

"Mary Hawthorth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH:

Could you please tell me—a widow, who has worked for 10 years and been self supporting—how I might work out a plan to relieve my economic stress? I am unable to meet present expenses, much less provide for the future.

My salary doesn't cover expenses, and I find myself in a constant financial squeeze and mental turmoil. I have read the books on constructive thinking, etc., that you recommend, and many more besides—in search of mental, spiritual and physical health, but haven't solved the problem yet.

I want to rid my mind of fear but cannot in the present setup. I live in a small apartment and have to eat out. I am really not physically able to work, also I need more recreation and sociability. Is there any help for us widows?

M.L.

DEAR M.L.: It appears that you've been trying to solve your problem within yourself, so to speak, with the result that you've spent your potentially creative energies in meditating worriedly on your unmet needs, thus perpetuating your captivity.

A better way to handle the situation is to recognize that you are completely involved with the human race, that you aren't alone in life, and that it would be profitable to move outwards, socially, in search of deliverance from your current limitations.

"We are all members one of another," as St. Paul has said, in referring to the spiritual interrelationship of believing persons, who recognize the reality of Jesus Christ's mission on earth; to reopen the doors to God's abundance for mankind.

Paul was using vernacular words to describe what has also been called "the mystical body of Christ"—namely the fellowship in every generation of those persons whose lives are consciously dedicated to God's uses; to helping His Kingdom come. His will be done, amongst us.

God operates in the human scene through the medium of human beings—even His Son was "made flesh" for that purpose. Which means that if we are to solve our problems—or learn our lessons in living—with God's help, we must keep ourselves cordially in the midst of humanity much of the time. We cannot be reclusive, isolated, fearful, suspicious, "keeping ourselves to ourselves," etc.

We have to stay in the mainstream, swimming or rowing our canoe as best we can, meanwhile always lending a hand to other people. And I imagine this is more or less what you haven't been doing, in your 10 years of financially hardpressed widowhood.

For example, you say you live in a small apartment and have to eat out. Actually no apartment is so small that one can't fix a meal in it—if one has a hospitable, cheer-giving temperament. I surmise that you eat out because you're too lonely to eat at home, in a dreary atmosphere where nobody calls. And this surmise is further sustained by your complaint that you need "more recreation and sociability."

Record High Cost of Living Seen as Coming This Year

Editor's Note: Following is the second in a series of two articles by Sam Dawson, Associated Press business analyst, who has just completed a tour of the nation checking on the economic pulse of the United States.

By SAM DAWSON

SAN FRANCISCO — Higher prices—a creeping rise in the cost of living to new record highs—is a strong probability for the consumer to reckon with in the last half of this year.

There's a good chance, however, that reckon with it he can, if he's a persistent bargain hunter. Because the competition will be high, the supply of most goods ample, and the promotion urge strong in the breast of the retailer.

This is no paradox. It stems from two things:

Costs have been rising steadily for some time and seem sure to continue to, reflecting rising wage scales and the delayed aftermath of past inflation.

Increasing production capacity, on the other hand, and the keener rivalry for the consumer's dollar will make profit margin cutting and markdowns a continuing fact of business life.

For services the story is different. Signs point to still higher costs of medical care, fuel and recreation and sociability.

transportation and a higher federal tax on gasoline. Already the cost of living over-all has jumped up to equal the previous record high of October, 1953. It seems sure to go higher this fall.

Wages are still pointed upward. And total jobs, in spite of the much talked about layoffs in the auto industry, hover near record levels. The eleventh round in wage increases since the war are bringing higher settlements this year than last. Many labor contracts have automatic wage increases written into them. Weekly

Rotating Parlor Is Newest Gimmick In Modern Home

COLUMBUS, Ohio — The American dream of a house with a view has reached some kind of a climax with the construction near here of a house with a rotating second-story picture-window living room.

The 18-by 18 foot room driven by an electric motor gives its occupants a potential 360-degree view of the countryside.

Clark Ranney, 68, the builder, has dubbed it the "Sceneramic House." He says he has applied for patents and that other builders, particularly in Florida, have asked for rights to put up similar homes.

The house has a brick first floor containing three bedrooms, two baths and a kitchen. The rotating upstairs frame living room is reached by a spiral staircase in the center of the house. It revolves on 24 wheels which ride a circular track and can make one revolution per minute at top speed.

ly earnings, in spite of loss of overtime and shorter work weeks for many workers, still top the figure for a year ago.

Personal income totals, therefore, seem sure to rise, barring such disasters as long strikes or a breakdown in the economic or international picture generally.

Even farm incomes, long the weak spot, have firmed up some and hope is high that the long downturn has hit bottom.

At mid year the consumer shows definite signs of concentrating on paying off some of the huge debt load he shouldered in the 1955 buying spree. This has cramped his buying style.

Auto makers are especially hopeful. They are planning alluring models—apparently with higher price tags—to revive their market. Design is their top card. The cars will be lower, with much talk of 14-inch wheels, and will look longer, even if they aren't. They will have even more glass, but their colors may not be quite as eye arresting.

OBERLIN — The city School Board has chosen Dr. Harry A. Kass, 42, of Logansport, Ind., to be superintendent of schools at an annual salary of $11,000.

Medical Research Accomplishments, 50 Years

The part played by medical research as well as accomplishments resulting from scientific studies in connection with industry, stand out as marvelous achievements. We see evidence of this on all sides, regardless of where we are at home or at some distant point. Men and institutions are ultimately judged by results. It cannot be denied that results of the last half century of medical research are superlative by any standard. The head of a pharmaceutical company tells of some of them in a recent issue of The Exchange Magazine. In 1900, life expectancy at birth was about 49 years. Now it is around 70 to 76 years. Some experts expect it to reach between 90 and 100 years by the end of this century. In 1900, the greatest killer was pneumonia. Now it has been all but defeated, with the death rate down from 152 per 100,000 to 12. In 1900, the survivors of pneumonia could count on paying three months' wages for hospital bills. Today the disease is often cured at home with antibiotics, at a comparatively small cost. Particularly noteworthy progress has been made in saving children. Of every 1,000 babies surviving birth in 1900, 162 died within the first year; today the figure is less than 30. At the beginning of the century, 7,000 children died annually of whooping cough; last year the mortality was 810. These are but a few of the many facts that could be cited as to what medicine has accomplished on behalf of us all. In the last 50 years more progress has been made in conquering disease and in prolonging life than in the entire previous history of man's existence. It was done by free men working in a free system, and that is something to think about.

Calypso - Mighty Sparrow

By Hal Boyle

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad (P)—You don't have to be able to write love letters to court a girl in old Trinidad. You tell her with music. And you don't even need to be a musician yourself. You simply fork over a little ready cash to the nearest impoverished calypso singer and he creates a quick ballad extolling in song the charms of the girl you're after. A movie company here now making a film with Rita Hayworth recently had her immortalized in this manner at a total cost of $100. Calypso songs originally were improvised satires on current events sung to an African rhythm at the annual pre-Lenten carnival. Today, however, the calypso industry is not much more spontaneous than the art of canning

tuna fish. It gets more like Tin Pan Alley every year. The ad libs aren't vocal. They're written out ahead of time. "The calypsos are becoming more commercialized," said Charles S. Espinet, assistant editor of the Trinidad Guardian and an authority on island folk music. "But at parties, where the singers know the guests, they still often improvise." Calypso singers are a breed apart. Most of them have little education, little formal knowledge of music. They usually come from the other side of the tracks, or, as the saying here goes "behind the bridge." But they have a keen sense of rhythm and a quick eye for the absurdities and pretensions of the human race. They all go by colorful or high-sounding names — such as

"Lord Melody," "Lord Creator," "King Radio," "Cowboy Jones," "Lord Invader," "Atilla the Hun," and "The Mighty Sparrow." Calypso singers (there are about 100) average $1,200 a year income. Many of the singers complain that visitors have stolen and exploited their tunes without paying them any royalties. A gentleman named Vital Angel has just started a music publishing firm here with the hope of stamping out tune robbing by foreigners. "Some calypsos are being played all over the United States," he said, "while the Calypsonians here who originated them do not get enough money to buy a set of teeth."

Who Cares about the Refugees?

By George Sokolsky

There are all sorts of refugees in this world. Wars and revolutions have made millions of people homeless. And homelessness is cruel no matter who the people, what the cause. One of the most difficult situations is that in which about 3,500 Chinese students in the United States find themselves. They came here to study in American universities and they cannot return home. Some of them are in financial difficulties. The Communist government in Peking, through the Indian embassies in Washington and at the United Nations, is putting pressure upon many of them to return to Communist China.

For some reason, the Nationalist government in Formosa does not concern itself very much with this problem, although one would imagine that it would attract their attention. Archbishop Paul Yu-pin of Nanking, who spends much of his time in the United States, has made the plight of the Chinese student, not only in the United States but in Europe, his special care. In New York, he is president of Sino-American Amity which is a non-political but nevertheless anti-Communist organization with a building of its own on Riverside Drive. This is a students' center and while many members are Americans, the Sino-American Amity provides a point of contact between Chinese students and Americans so that public as well as personal problems may be ironed out sympathetically and with some expertness.

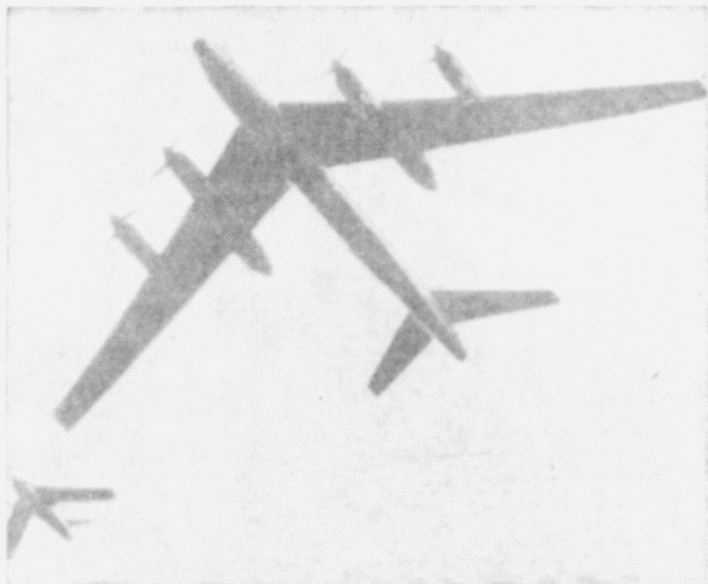

The dislocated person finds that time has passed him by. It is true that some Chinese students, particularly those who have taken engineering or scientific courses, are able to get work in the United States and a small number are even teaching in American universities, but when they came to this country to study, they never intended to remain away from their homes and their families permanently. Many of them undoubtedly were ambitious to be of service to their country. But they are unwilling to return to Red China where their families are.

This is only one phase of the world refugee problem and these men and women are fortunate that such a personality as Archbishop Yu-pin has devoted himself to it. In other parts of the world, refugees from war and revolution and the vast changes that have taken place are left without security or opportunity. On the other hand, those Europeans who were able to emigrate to Australia, Canada and the United States seem to be doing very well and the Jews from Europe and Africa who have found sanctuary in Israel have the emotional satisfaction of building a new nation. Both the Russians and the Red Chinese are putting terrific pressures upon their own people and those of the other Communist countries to return. It is difficult to understand why it is so important for them to force people to live where they do not wish to live. The method is actually a type of emotional blackmail—a letter from a mother who when last seen could not write in any language, or from a lost brother or sister. Nevertheless, a letter from mother evokes an emotional response, whoever may have written or dictated it. Such soul-stirring blackmail is always an effective weapon—but why? What great difference does it make if these people love in the United States more than in Soviet Russia? If the Communists wish them to communicate with their families, all that needs to be done is to start a letter-writing campaign. The answer is psychological rather than political. Every person who refuses to return to a Communist country ipso facto condemns that country, whether he be a Chinese scholar with a Ph.D. or a former Ukrainian peasant who has become a shepherd in Australia. Apparently what is wanted is that such a person should return to his own country, stand before a radio microphone and tell how happy he is to be home and how he suffered at the hands of the capitalists and the imperialists. Such denunciations have actually occurred and sometimes the speakers were among those who had been kidnapped from the United States by Soviet authorities. After he has made that statement, the former refugee passes out of the picture. He has served some purpose but to the Western mind, it is impossible to understand what that purpose can be who really cares? (Copyright 1955, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Exercise Can Help Mom Get Her Figure

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN
Getting your figure back after giving birth to a baby every now and then is quite a problem. A few simple exercises, however, should go a long way toward helping you regain that streamlined appearance. While I will tell you how to perform these exercises, let me caution you not to attempt them without the approval of your personal physician.

Back Muscles
For helping the back muscles and waistline, try this:

Lie on your back on the floor, your arms outstretched. Next bring your knees up snugly against your chest.

Palms on Floor
Place your palms firmly on the floor and slowly move your hips sideways until your left knee touches the floor. Then bring your hips back into the original position, rest briefly, and swing them to the right.

To strengthen your abdomen muscles:

Get on the floor on your hands and knees. Slowly swing your hips around to the right. Next, stretch your head around—not over—your arm and shoulder until you can see your right hip.

Brief Rest
Return to the original position.

You can help the uterus this way:

Lie face down in bed. Place a pillow under your lower abdomen and another under your ankles to raise them. Then, with palms upraised, relax. Just let the uterus fall back into position.

It's also essential, of course, to wear a properly supported brassiere immediately following birth of a baby. The delicate breast tissue needs special protection during this period.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

D. H.: I have excessive tearing of my eyes. What causes this? Answer: This can be caused by infection or disease of the eye.

However, the most common cause is usually some disturbance of the tear duct sac. This can be readily remedied by a physician.

Commuter Uses Stamps for Fare

BOSTON (P)—A commuter on a Boston & Maine Railroad train used three 3-cent U. S. postage stamps to help get him home.

The commuter, whose name was not disclosed, had only $1.10 to pay a $1.17 fare from Hudson to Boston.

He refused the offer of conductor J. J. Keeley of Worcester to pay the seven cents for him.

The commuter explained he had three postage stamps valued at nine cents. Keeley accepted them and returned two cents change to the commuter.

Missouri Synod Boosts Budget

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—The Mis-

The long-range budget proposal

The conference which is expected

RUPERT, Idaho (AP)—Officers of the Pershing School PTA say it'll be a long time before they again try the "circulating basket" pro-

The PTA put three baskets into circulation with instructions that they be passed along from person to person, collecting food and money for the school.

Only one thing went wrong with the plan — all three baskets are

You Need The Church-The Church Needs You

WE HOLD THESE TRUTHS TO BE SELF-EVIDENT, THAT ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL, THAT THEY ARE ENDOWED BY THEIR CREATOR WITH CERTAIN INALIENABLE RIGHTS, AMONG THESE ARE LIFE, LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS, THAT TO SECURE
THESE RIGHTS GOVERNMENTS ARE INSTI-TUTED AMONG MEN. WE SOLEMNLY
PUBLISH AND DECLARE, THAT THESE COLONIES ARE AND OF RIGHT OUGHT TO BE FREE AND INDEPENDENT STATES... AND
FOR THE SUPPORT OF THIS DECLARATION,
WITH A FIRM RELIANCE ON THE PROTECTION
OF DIVINE PROVIDENCE, WE MUTUALLY PLEDGE OUR LIVES, OUR FORTUNES AND
OUR SACRED HONOR.

It's time to celebrate! It's time to rededicate yourself to God and Country! It's Independence Day! The Spirit of 1776 still lives. The right to freedom of worship must prevail. It is the Fourth of July!

The influence of Washington, the "Father of Our Country," is felt in every forward step America takes. The Flag, the Stars and Stripes, waves over a loyal and sacrificing people. The Eagle for strength and elevation of thought and purpose is affixed on our coin to show our exclusive right. *All this reminds us that a Free People had to
E Pluribus Unum.*

The great Document above, The Declaration of Independence,
was adopted on that memorable day. *This noble experiment of government, "of the people, by the people, for the people," guarantees every citizen of our country "certain inalienable rights...
Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness."* We have no ambition for conquest and military glory. We want no loot. But we mean to have our freedom and independence, whatever the cost. This is Independence Day!

PUBLISH AND DECLARE, THAT THESE
COLONIES ARE AND OF RIGHT OUGHT TO
FOR THE SUPPORT OF THIS DECLARATION,
OF DIVINE PROVIDENCE, WE MUTUALLY
PLEDGE OUR LIVES, OUR FORTUNES AND
OUR SACRED HONOR.

It's time to celebrate! It's time to rededicate yourself to God and Country! It's Independence Day! The Spirit of 1776 still lives. The right to freedom of worship must prevail. It is the Fourth of July!

The influence of Washington, the "Father of Our Country," is felt in every forward step America takes. The Flag, the Stars and Stripes, waves over a loyal and sacrificing people. The Eagle for strength and elevation of thought and purpose is affixed on our coin to show
our exclusive right. *All this reminds us that a Free People had to
E Pluribus Unum.*

The great Document above, The Declaration of Independence,
was adopted on that memorable day. *This noble experiment of government, "of the people, by the people, for the people," guarantees every citizen of our country "certain inalienable rights...
Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness."* We have no ambition for conquest and military glory. We want no loot. But we
cost. This is Independence Day!

Medical Research Accomplishments, 50 Years

The part played by medical research as well as accomplishments resulting from scientific studies in connection with industry, stand out as marvelous achievements. We see evidence of this on all sides, regardless of where we are at home or at some distant point.

Men and institutions are ultimately judged by results. It cannot be denied that results of the last half century of medical research are superlative by any standard.

The head of a pharmaceutical company tells of some of them in a recent issue of The Exchange Magazine. In 1900, life expectancy at birth was about 49 years. Now it is around 70 to 76 years. Some experts expect it to reach between 90 and 100 years by the end of this century.

In 1900, the greatest killer was pneumonia. Now it has been all but defeated, with the death rate down from 152 per 100,000 to 12. In 1900, the survivors of pneumonia could count on paying three months' wages for hospital bills. Today the disease is often cured at home with antibiotics, at a comparatively small cost.

Particularly noteworthy progress has been made in saving children. Of every 1,000 babies surviving birth in 1900, 162 died within the first year; today the figure is less than 30. At the beginning of the century, 7,000 children died annually of whooping cough; last year the mortality was 810.

These are but a few of the many facts that could be cited as to what medicine has accomplished on behalf of us all. In the last 50 years more progress has been made in conquering disease and in prolonging life than in the entire previous history of man's existence.

It was done by free men working in a free system, and that is something to think about.

Calypso - Mighty Sparrow

By Hal Boyle

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad — You don't have to be able to write love letters to court a girl in old Trinidad.

You tell her with music. And you don't even need to be a musician yourself. You simply fork over a little ready cash to the nearest impoverished calypso singer and he creates a quick ballad extolling in song the charms of the girl you're after.

A movie company here now making a film with Rita Hayworth recently had her immortalized in this manner at a total cost of $100.

Calypso songs originally were improvised satires on current events sung to an African rhythm at the annual pre-Lenten carnival.

Today, however, the calypso industry is not much more spontaneous than the art of canning

tuna fish. It gets more like Tin Pan Alley every year. The ad libs aren't vocal. They're written out ahead of time.

"The calypsos are becoming more commercialized," said Charles S. Espinet, assistant editor of the Trinidad Guardian and an authority on island folk music. "But at parties, where the singers know the guests, they still often improvise."

Calypso singers are a breed apart. Most of them have little education, little formal knowledge of music. They usually come from the other side of the tracks, or, as the saying here goes "behind the bridge."

But they have a keen sense of rhythm and a quick eye for the absurdities and pretensions of the human race.

They all go by colorful or high-sounding names — such as

"Lord Melody," "Lord Creator," "King Radio," "Cowboy Jones," "Lord Invader," "Attila the Hun," and "The Mighty Sparrow."

Calypso singers (there are about 100) average $1,200 a year income.

Many of the singers complain that visitors have stolen and exploited their tunes without paying them any royalties.

A gentleman named Vital Angel has just started a music publishing firm here with the hope of stamping out tune robbing by foreigners.

"Some calypsos are being played all over the United States," he said, "while the Calypsonians here who originated them do not get enough money to buy a set of teeth."

Who Cares about the Refugees?

By George Sokolsky

There are all sorts of refugees in this world. Wars and revolutions have made millions of people homeless. And homelessness is cruel no matter who the people, what the cause.

One of the most difficult situations is that in which about 3,500 Chinese students in the United States find themselves. They came here to study in American universities and they cannot return home. Some of them are in financial difficulties. The Communist government in Peking, through the Indian embassies in Washington and at the United Nations, is putting pressure upon many of them to return to Communist China.

For some reason, the Nationalist government in Formosa does not concern itself very much with this problem, although one would imagine that it would attract their attention.

Archbishop Paul Yu-pin of Nanking, who spends much of his time in the United States, has made the plight of the Chinese student, not only in the United States but in Europe, his special care. In New York, he is president of Sino-American Amity which is a non-political but nevertheless anti-Communist organization with a building of its own on Riverside Drive. This is a students' center and while many members are Americans, the Sino-American Amity provides a point of contact between Chinese students and Americans so that public as well as personal problems may be ironed out sympathetically and with some effectiveness.

The dislocated person finds that time has passed him by. It is true that some Chinese students, particularly those who have taken engineering or scientific courses, are able to get work in the United States and a small number are even teaching in American universities, but when they came to this country to study, they never intended to remain away from their homes and their families permanently. Many of them undoubtedly were ambitious to be of service to their country. But they are unwilling to return to Red China where their families are.

This is only one phase of the world refugee problem and these men and women are fortunate that such a personality as Archbishop Yu-pin has devoted himself to it. In other parts of the world, refugees from war and revolution and the vast changes that have taken place are left without security or opportunity.

On the other hand, those Europeans who were able to emigrate to Australia, Canada and the United States seem to be doing very well and the Jews from Europe and Africa who have found sanctuary in Israel have the emotional satisfaction of building a new nation.

Both the Russians and the Red Chinese are putting terrific pressures upon their own people and those of the other Communist countries to return. It is difficult to understand why it is so important for them to force people to live where they do not wish to live. The method is actually a type of emotional blackmail—a letter from a mother who when last seen could not write in any language, or from a lost brother or sister.

Nevertheless, a letter from mother evokes an emotional response, whoever may have written or dictated it. Such soul-stirring blackmail is always an effective weapon—but why? What great difference does it make if these people love in the United States more than in Soviet Russia? If the Communists wish them to communicate with their families, all that needs to be done is to start a letter-writing campaign.

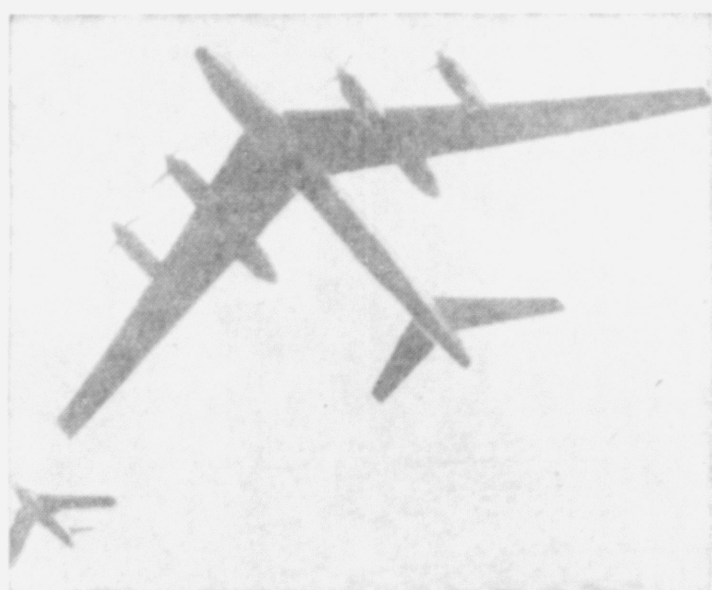

The answer is psychological

rather than political. Every person who refuses to return to a Communist country ipso facto condemns that country, whether he be a Chinese scholar with a Ph.D. or a former Ukrainian peasant who has become a shepherd in Australia. Apparently what is wanted is that such a person should return to his own country, stand before a radio microphone and tell how happy he is to be home and how he suffered at the hands of the capitalists and the imperialists. Such denunciations have actually occurred and sometimes the speakers were among those who had been kidnapped from the United States by Soviet authorities.

After he has made that statement, the former refugee passes out of the picture. He has served some purpose but to the Western mind, it is impossible to understand what that purpose can be who really cares!

Exercise Can Help Mom Get Her Figure

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN
Getting your figure back after giving birth to a baby every now and then is quite a problem. A few simple exercises, however, should go a long way toward helping you regain that streamlined appearance. While I will tell you how to perform these exercises, let me caution you not to attempt them without the approval of your personal physician.

Back Muscles

For helping the back muscles and waistline, try this:

Palms on Floor

Place your palms firmly on the floor and slowly move your hips sideways until your left knee touches the floor. Then bring your hips back into the original position, rest briefly, and swing them to the right.

To strengthen your abdomen muscles:

Get on the floor on your hands and knees. Slowly swing your hips around to the right. Next, stretch your head around—not over—your arm and shoulder until you can see your right hip.

Brief Rest

Return to the original position.

The Answer Quick

1. Who wrote The Virginian? The Virginians?
2. In political parlance what is "log-rolling"?
3. What American artist painted many pictures of prize fighting?
4. Can you name the man who was England's youngest prime minister?
5. Who was Abelard's famous innamorata?

Watch Your Language

NAVE — (NAVE) — noun, in basilean and erudite churches, the part that rises higher than the aisles flanking it and has, usually, a clerestory. Origin: Latin—Navis, ship, to which the church was often likened.

Your Future

A most auspicious outlook is indicated for you, so make the most of it. Born under these favorable influences, a child may be clever, and endowed with some special talent.

How'd You Make Out

1. Owen Wister wrote The Virginian. William Makepeace Thackeray, The Virginians.
2. An agreement of two or more politicians to further each other's plans, as by each voting for the other's bill.
3. George Wesley Bellows — 1882-1925.
4. William Pitt, the younger — 1759-1806, prime minister at 24.
5. Heloise.

You can help the uterus this way:
Lie face down in bed. Place a pillow under your lower abdomen and another under your ankles to raise them. Then, with palms upraised, relax. Just let the uterus fall back into position. It's also essential, of course, to wear a properly supported brassiere immediately following birth of a baby. The delicate breast tissue needs special protection during this period.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

D. H.: I have excessive tearing of my eyes. What causes this?
Answer: This can be caused by infection or disease of the eye.

Commuter Uses Stamps for Fare

BOSTON — A commuter on a Boston & Maine Railroad train used three 3-cent U. S. postage stamps to help get him home.

The commuter, whose name was not disclosed, had only $1.10 to pay a $1.17 fare from Hudson to Boston.

He refused the offer of conductor J. J. Keeley of Worcester to pay the seven cents for him.

The commuter explained he had three postage stamps valued at nine cents. Keeley accepted them and returned two cents change to the commuter.

WSCS Members Include Families At Annual Picnic

Members of the Milledgeville WSCS, their families and guests numbering forty, enjoyed the annual summer picnic Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sheeley, daughters Ruth Ann and Helen Louise, near Milledgeville.

The delicious picnic supper was served on the spacious lawn at long tables and Rev. Robert Slocumb, gave the invocation preceding the meal.

Following the supper hour, the business session was held indoors with the president, Mrs. R. E. Coil presiding.

The opening hymn was followed with the praying of the Lord's Prayer and the usual reports were given and accepted.

A lengthy discussion was held on ways and means of raising funds for the treasury and Mrs. Robert Slocumb was presented in a few remarks.

The meeting was adjourned with prayer by the president and the members joined the group for informal visiting with Rev. and Mrs. Slocumb who have just been assigned to the church.

Mrs. Geiger Is Honored Guest At Lovely Event

Mrs. Thomas Christopher entertained at beautiful evening party on Thursday and the event complemented Mrs. Harold Geiger of Birmingham, Michigan.

The guests included a group of close friends of the honor guest, who enjoyed the game of progressive bridge.

Summer flowers were used in tasteful arrangements throughout the home.

At the conclusion of the game awards for high score at each of the three tables were presented to Mrs. Robert Lytton, Mrs. William McArthur and Mrs. Loren Noble.

Mrs. Christopher also presented Mrs. Geiger with a lovely gift.

Later Mrs. Christopher seated her guests at one long table centered with pink roses flanked with pink tapers for the serving of a tempting salad and sandwich course.

Guests included in addition to the honor guest were: Mrs. Samuel Douds, Mrs. Willis Coffman, Mrs. Neil Helfrich, Mrs. Jack Hagerty, Mrs. Jane Coffman, Mrs. Robert Woodmansee, Mrs. Robert Lytton, Mrs. William McArthur, and Mrs. Loren Noble, all of this city, and Mrs. Richard Sanderson of Houston, Texas.

Mrs. Richard Van Landingham, secretary, gave her report as did the treasurer, Mrs. Elden Armbrust, both of which were accepted as given.

Roll call was responded to by seventeen members who named the place they were married.

It was decided to meet at the church for a covered dish dinner on July 4 honoring the Van Landinghams who are leaving the community soon.

The meeting was adjourned and during the social hour games were conducted by Mrs. Ralph Pollard.

Later tempting refreshments were served by the host and hostess and their assistants, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Armbrust.

An unusually large group of members and guests assembled on Thursday, for the regular ladies luncheon bridge, at the Washington Country Club.

TV Students Get Better Grades

CINCINNATI (AP) — Dr. George W. Kisker, associate professor of psychology at the University of Cincinnati, says persons who took his courses via television made better grades than those on the campus. He based his opinion on the examinations of 50 students from each class.

Dr. Kisker said his first opinion was that TV students were the smarter. Intelligence tests, however, showed the video scholars to have less brain power on the average than the campus students, he added.

Missouri Synod Boosts Budget

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—The Missouri Synod Lutheran Convention here has recommended a six-year, $13,110,700 budget.

The long-range budget proposal passed unanimously in the form of a recommendation to the church's fiscal conference. It covers the years 1957 through 1962.

The conference which is expected to meet this summer in St.
Louis is the body which actually will set up the budget.

The total, broken down to yearly allocations, represents an increase each year of some 10 per cent over the previous year.

The PTA put three baskets into circulation with instructions that they be passed along from person

ey for the school.

Only one thing went wrong with the plan—all three baskets are

It's time to celebrate! It's time to rededicate yourself to God and Coun-

freedom of worship must prevail. It is the Fourth of July!

The influence of Washington, the "Father of Our Country," is felt in every forward step America takes. The Flag, the Stars and Stripes, waves over a loyal and sacrificing people. The Eagle for strength and elevation of thought and purpose is affixed on our coin to show
our exclusive right. *All this reminds us that a Free People had to
E Pluribus Unum.*

The great Document above, The Declaration of Independence,
was adopted on that memorable day. *This noble experiment of government, "of the people, by the people, for the people," guarantees every citizen of our country "certain inalienable rights...

cost. This is Independence Day!

Child Hospital For Parents, too

'Feeling of Home Sought for Patient

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — A University of Michigan pediatrician proposed today a children's hospital of the future where Mom and Dad can live motel-style with their child until he recovers.

Dr. James L. Wilson told 200 hospital clinicians, meeting at the university, that hospitals must take time and care in making small children "feel at home" when they come to the hospital.

He said there was a desperate need for a new children's hospital embodying a new concept of child care.

"We hope to have a unit constructed," he said, "in which parents will be able to stay with the child during his confinement."

Each room is planned, he said, with a kitchenette so meals could be prepared by the mother. It would be on ground level so cars could be parked nearby.

"In this respect," he said, "its convenience would resemble that of a motel."

WITHOUT facilities of this type, he said, hospitals must take "time, patience and sincere understanding."

"We must start," he said, "by giving the role of handling them to people who like children."

Even people with instinctive understanding, however, must be careful not to let the child get lost in hospital routine.

The child is usually frightened, Dr. Wilson said, and cannot be expected to stick to the normally rigid hospital routine.

"It is true," he said, "some children adapt faster than others but we should not skimp on the amount of time necessary to help any child adjust."

Among the reasons a child will be afraid, he said are:

He has been taken away from his parents; he doesn't recognize anyone around him; he's sick and doesn't feel like his normal self, he has not been given a chance to adapt to his new surroundings.

15 Westinghouse Workers Fired

COLUMBUS (AP) — Fifteen Columbus Westinghouse workers, suspended Monday for "refusing to work," were fired yesterday.

The workers were protesting new work quotas on the refrigerator production line.

Charles H. Clark, president of Local 756 of the International Union of Electrical Workers said the union will file a grievance if the 15 men are not reinstated.

Gasoline, Tire Tax Boost Going into Effect Saturday

COLUMBUS — The new federal pay-as-you-ride tax to support a $33 billion highway construction program will go into effect at midnight Saturday. It is expected that it will post the average American motorist about $8.50 a year.

The revenue will be derived from a hike of one cent a gallon on gasoline and three cents per pound of tire.

All told, Americans will pay in an estimated $14.8 billion in new taxes for the building program. In return they will get a 41,000-mile four-lane highway system.

The cent-a-gallon hike is expected to bring to about $81 million the amount of federal tax collected annually in Ohio. Meanwhile, the Buckeye State is scheduled to receive about $320 million as its share of the building program.

Since the average motorist has no place to store a supply of gasoline, no boom has been reported in the sale of the fuel in advance of the price hike.

But tire dealers in Ohio have reported a sharp increase in sales. Many motorists and large trucking firms are buying now to beat the tax.

One Akron dealer said trucking firms are giving him orders which range up to $10,000 each. Overall, the dealers estimated their sales have been up about 50 per cent in the last few days.

Previously, the federal tax on tires amounted to five cents a

Caddy Carts Now Move to Mail Routes

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Looks like caddy carts, load-lifters for the weekend golfer, may add a few years to the working career of some postmen.

"It looks like they will be all right," says Raymond Scott, superintendent of delivery and collection here.

The rubber-wheeled carts, with places for two mail pouches, take the load off the postman's back and shoulder, and Scott says: "If we can get a few more years out of a good man with the cart we feel it is advisable."

Some routes, such as those with high terraces, don't lend themselves to the use of the carts, Scott says. But if a postman who needs a cart is on one of these routes, Scott says he can be transferred to one where the use is feasible.

The carts fold up and plans are being made for them to be kept in mail storage boxes along the routes so the postmen won't have to return to the main or branch offices with them.

Now, with this new increase in the federal tax, highway users of this state will be paying an estimated $216 million a year—about 16 times as much—in state and federal taxes on gasoline.

The tax hike is the ninth general increase in gas tax rates motorists of this state have been called on to pay in the 31 years that gasoline has been taxed.

Oliver S. Nelson Memorialized In Resolution by Ohio Senate

A resolution of respect to the memory of Oliver S. Nelson, Fayette County banker and former legislator in the Ohio General Assembly, whose death occurred at his home in this county recently, was introduced in the Ohio Senate Thursday. The resolution recounted Mr. Nelson's official and business activities mentioning him as a well known school teacher and county school superintendent, a member of the Fayette County Board of School Examiners, sheriff of the county, that he represented Fayette County in the House of the Ohio General Assembly and also a two-term state senator in that body, was appointed to membership on several important legislative committees, served as cashier of the Milledgeville Bank both at Milledgeville and later when it was moved to Jeffersonville.

The Best Place To Get The Best Buick Yet at

Brandenburg's

For some reason or other, new car advertising, or used car advertising for that matter, has too often been in the realm of the "gimmick." I can't understand why.

Here we have a product that calls for a considerable investment. It is a product that its owner carefully selects and is justifiably proud of when he takes it home.

It is a product of which the owner speaks with pride.

Yet, when it is advertised there is too often some wild Ballyhoo about it.

For a long time I have wanted to tell the Buick Story in the advertisements as I tell it to the customer who enters my place of business. We have the best Buick built and that is saying something. We believe in an honest trade-in with full value offered for the car the motorist is actually "selling" to me. And we believe in letting the customer choose the accessories he desires. Every customer knows exactly what he is buying.

If you want to "shop" that's fine. We feel sure you'll conclude there's no reason for a man who wants a Buick to travel any further than our showrooms, every reason to come back to us after he has realistically weighed his own interest.

TV Students Get Better Grades

CINCINNATI (AP) — Dr. George W. Kisker, associate professor of psychology at the University of Cincinnati, says persons who took his courses via television made better grades than those on the campus. He based his opinion on the examinations of 50 students from each class.

Dr. Kisker said his first opinion was that TV students were the smarter. Intelligence tests, however, showed the video scholars to have less brain power on the average than the campus students, he added.

Grandview Oval Rebuilt For Meeting

CLEVELAND — A rebuilt track will greet the trotters and the pacers when they step out onto Grandview's half-mile on Monday night when the 44-night 1956 season gets underway. Grandview will continue through Aug. 21 as it goes into its fifth season operation.

Over 10,000 yards of excellent grade clay loam soil has been worked, graded, and shaped into condition to make the half-mile track one of the fastest and safest in the country. All four turns on the track have been banked according to United States Trotting Association specifications.

Both of the track records are expected to fall during the meeting. The pace record is the mark of 2:02.2 set by Times Square on opening night a year ago, while the trot record is 2:04 set by Betty Astra on Aug. 5, 1955.

This is the second year of operation under the leadership of Walter Michael of Bucyrus, McKinley Kirk of Washington C. H. and Harvey Klink, also of Bucyrus.

Racing Secretary Don H. Roberts will send the trotters and pacers to the post each night. The co-features of the Grandview meeting this year will be the $12,500 added Cleveland Trot to be raced Aug. 2 and the $12,500 added Grandview Pace to be raced Aug. 9. These two races have attracted some of the best in the trotting and pacing field.

Last year an average of 3,075 trotting fans witnessed the races each night and it is expected that this average attendance figure will be increased this season.

Rule Book Out in Girton-Burg Tangle

Yes, they played Babe Ruth ball over at the City Park Thursday night, but nobody's quite sure who won. It's like this:

Girton's and Bloomington were scheduled for a game, and played five innings of hard, fast ball. At the end of the stretch, Girton's was leading, 9-7—but it was almost dark.

The umpires said the game could go ahead another full inning. And in the top of the sixth, Bloomington went out in front, 14-9.

Girton's came up in the bottom of the sixth and picked up three more runs so it was 14-12. But then, with two out and a man on third, the umpires decided it was too dark.

Who won? Well, naturally enough, the Bloomington boys thought they did, for obvious reasons. But the rule book says that if a game is called in mid-inning, the score reverts back to the score at the end of the last completed inning.

Or in other words, Girton's won, 9-7.

The case will be arbitrated. As of now, the game isn't being recorded as official.

10-Pound Rockfish Worth $25,000

BALTIMORE — Wanted: A snub-nosed, wall-eyed, chinless fish wearing black and white stripes and known as "Diamond Jim." Last seen in the vicinity of Chesapeake Bay. Reward for his capture, dead or alive, $25,000, says the League of Maryland Sportsmen.

Diamond Jim is a 10-pound rockfish, who will be turned loose Monday in Chesapeake Bay. To his jaw will be clamped a gold tag with a diamond in the center to identify him.

He must be caught by hook and line. If he's hooked before midnight Sept. 14, the lucky angler will receive $25,000. If he's boated after that, he's worth $1,000.

"IT'S SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD."

HERE IS A VIEW of Aqueduct race track, on Long Island, which will be the new "dream" track in the New York state area. The Greater New York Association, which operates all tracks in the state, will spend $25,000,000 to build an entirely new plant at Aqueduct and another $5,000,000 to improve Belmont. The new Aqueduct track will accommodate 60,000 and seat 20,800. The new racing oval will be a mile and one-eighth. The track will be completed in 1958. And, until the plant is built, there will be no more racing here. (International)

All-Star Game Due To Pit Redlegs vs American League

NEW YORK —It will be Cincinnati against the American League in the All-Star Game at Washington July 10 with five Redlegs in the starting lineup.

Three more Cincinnati players, all handy with the home run bat, finished second in the final balloting as the fans decreed a complete turnover in the 1955 National League starting team.

First baseman Dale Long of Pittsburgh, third baseman Ken Boyer of St. Louis and right fielder Stan Musial of St. Louis were the only men capable of breaking Cincinnati's lock on the starting jobs. In each case the runner-up was a Redleg—Ted Kluszewski at first, Ray Jablonski at third and Wally Post in right.

Johnny Temple and Roy McMillan, Cincy's classy second base-shortstop combination, won starting jobs. So did rookie Frank Robinson in left, Gus Bell in center and Ed Bailey as catcher.

Despite this tremendous push by Cincinnati, top honors in total votes went to Mickey Mantle, New York Yankee threat to Babe Ruth's home run record. Mantle polled 206,524 with catcher Yogi Berra, a Yankee teammate, second with 191,146 votes.

Final totals were announced Thursday by the office of Commissioner Ford Frick after fan polls by newspapers, radio and television stations.

Other National starters of '55 who failed to win were Kluszewski, second baseman Red Schoendienst of New York, third baseman Eddie Mathews of Milwaukee, shortstop Ernie Banks of Chicago and outfielders Del Ennis of Philadelphia, Duke Snider of Brooklyn and Don Mueller of New York.

American League fans returned almost the entire 1955 ticket intact. The only starter who failed to win again was Jim Finigan, Kansas City third baseman who hasn't been playing regularly.

Mantle and Berra are the only representatives of the leading Yankees. Boston has two, Mickey Vernon on first base and Ted Williams in left, and Detroit also placed a pair — right fielder Al Kaline and shortstop Harvey Kuenn. Other American starters are second baseman Nellie Fox of Chicago and third baseman George Kell of Baltimore.

Under All-Star rules, the players picked by the fans must start and play at least three innings unless injured. The pitchers and other members of the 25-man squads will be named by Managers Casey Stengel of the American and Walter Alston of the National next Monday.

3 Middletown Girls Vie in Tournament

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. — Three Middletown, Ohio, girls — Carolyn Wikoff, Judy Hagan and Linda Neim—today moved into the semifinals of the Southern Juniors and Girls Tennis Tournament.

Miss Wikoff, ranked No. 1 in the juniors division (girls 18 and under), yesterday eliminated fifth-ranked Jean Kraft of Louisville, 6-0, 6-1, while the second-seeded Miss Hagan breezed by sixth-ranked Barbara Dupree of Athens, Ga., 6-1, 6-0.

Miss Neim gained the semifinals of the girls' division (15 and under) by dropping Pam Ketterer of Ormond Beach, Fla., 6-3, 6-2.

Week Angles To Buy Up Tiger Team

DETROIT — Bill Veeck, who won a pennant at Cleveland and used a midget at St. Louis, is going to bid for a major league comeback with the Detroit Tigers.

The colorful showman has lined up a well-balanced syndicate that he hopes will meet all the requirements necessary to buy the Tiger franchise from the estate of Walter O. Briggs.

Ten other syndicates also are in the running with the doors due to close at midnight Monday. That's the deadline for posting the $250,000 "good faith" money necessary to get a look at the books of the Detroit Baseball Co.

Actual bids can be made any time. None has been announced yet but Veeck says he'll probably make his offer Monday.

"I'm hopeful, almost confident, that it will be acceptable," the red-haired Veeck declared last night as he unveiled his partners — 11 Detroit area business and professional men, a brewery executive from Baltimore and John S. Hilson, a New York broker.

Hilson probably is the big money man in the venture. He was a partner with Veeck in the purchase of the Cleveland Indians in 1947 and the old St. Louis Browns in 1951.

The Indians won a pennant the year after Veeck bought them but in St. Louis he had to rely on such tricks as using his midget as a pinch hitter and having the players psychoanalyzed.

Final Tests Nearing for U. S. Olympics

LOS ANGELES — Uncle Sam's greatest group of Olympic prospects start final competition tonight for the team to make the trip to Australia in the fall.

A throng of more than 50,000 was expected in Memorial Coliseum to watch the U. S. finals in eight events. Nine others will be decided tomorrow afternoon.

"Performance-wise, it's the greatest United States group ever," says U. S. Olympic track coach Jim Kelly. Then he warns,

'Feeling of Home
Sought for Patient

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — A University of Michigan pediatrician proposed today a children's hospital of the future where Mom and Dad can live motel-style with their child until he recovers.

Dr. James L. Wilson told 200 hospital clinicians, meeting at the university, that hospitals must take time and care in making small children "feel at home" when they come to the hospital.

"We hope to have a unit constructed," he said, "in which parents will be able to stay with the child during his confinement."

Each room is planned, he said, with a kitchenette so meals could be prepared by the mother. It would be on ground level so cars could be parked nearby.

"In this respect," he said, "its convenience would resemble that of a motel."

WITHOUT facilities of this type, he said, hospitals must take "time, patience and sincere understanding."

"We must start," he said, "by giving the role of handling them to people who like children."

Even people with instinctive understanding, however, must be careful not to let the child get lost in hospital routine.

The child is usually frightened, Dr. Wilson said, and cannot be expected to stick to the normally rigid hospital routine.

"It is true," he said, "some children adapt faster than others but we should not skip on the amount of time necessary to help any child adjust."

Among the reasons a child will be afraid, he said are:

He has been taken away from his parents; he doesn't recognize anyone around him; he's sick and doesn't feel like his normal self, he has not been given a chance to adapt to his new surroundings.

15 Westinghouse Workers Fired

COLUMBUS (AP) — Fifteen Columbus Westinghouse workers suspended Monday for "refusing to work," were fired yesterday.

The workers were protesting new work quotas on the refrigerator production line.

Charles H. Clark, president of Local 756 of the International Union of Electrical Workers said the union will file a grievance if the 15 men are not reinstated.

Gasoline, Tire Tax Boost Going into Effect Saturday

COLUMBUS — The new federal pay-as-you-ride tax to support a $33 billion highway construction program will go into effect at midnight Saturday. It is expected that it will cost the average American motorist about $8.50 a year.

The revenue will be derived from a hike of one cent a gallon on gasoline and three cents per pound of tire.

All told, Americans will pay in an estimated $14.8 billion in new taxes for the building program. In return they will get a 41,000-mile four-lane highway system.

The cent-a-gallon hike is expected to bring to about $81 million the amount of federal tax collected annually in Ohio. Meanwhile, the Buckeye State is scheduled to receive about $320 million as its share of the building program.

Since the average motorist has no place to store a supply of gasoline, no boom has been reported in the sale of the fuel in advance of the price hike.

But tire dealers in Ohio have reported a sharp increase in sales. Many motorists and large trucking firms are buying now to beat the tax.

One Akron dealer said trucking firms are giving him orders which range up to $10,000 each. Overall, the dealers estimated their sales have been up about 50 per cent in the last few days.

Previously, the federal tax on tires amounted to five cents a pound. The new tax will raise this to eight cents.

Stocks at dealers are subject to the tax immediately at Saturday midnight, in addition to tires in the hands of wholesalers.

On the average passenger car tube tire, the tax will amount to about 65 cents. The tax on tubeless tires will run about 75 cents.

The new gasoline revenue increase, added to the present 2-cent federal tax and the 5-cent state tax, will bring total taxes in Ohio to 8 cents a gallon. This is equivalent to about a 38 per cent sales tax on gasoline.

The Ohio gas tax, first imposed

Caddy Carts Now Move to Mail Routes

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Looks like caddy carts, load-lifters for the weekend golfer, may add a few years to the working career of some postmen.

Four of the push-or-pull type carts are now in use at the St. Louis post office by mailmen with a physical disability, such as a bad back.

"It looks like they will be all right," says Raymond Scott, superintendent of delivery and collection here.

The rubber-wheeled carts, with places for two mail pouches, take the load off the postman's back and shoulder, and Scott says: "If we can get a few more years out of a good man with the cart we feel it is advisable."

Some routes, such as those with high terraces, don't lend themselves to the use of the carts, Scott says. But if a postman needs a cart is on one of these routes, Scott says he can be transferred to one where the use is feasible.

The carts fold up and plans are being made for them to be kept in mail storage boxes along the routes so the postmen won't have to return to the main or branch offices with them.

Now, with this new increase in the federal tax, highway users of this state will be paying an estimated $216 million a year—about 16 times as much—in state and federal taxes on gasoline.

The tax hike is the ninth general increase in gas tax rates motorists of this state have been called on to pay in the 31 years that gasoline has been taxed.

CLEVELAND (AP) — The 25th Ohio assembly of the Order of the Rainbow opened yesterday with its highest attendance on record, some 3,000 members.

Oliver S. Nelson Memorialized In Resolution by Ohio Senate

A resolution of respect to the memory of Oliver S. Nelson, Fayette County banker and former legislator in the Ohio General Assembly, whose death occurred at his home in this county recently, was introduced in the Ohio Senate Thursday.

It was unanimously passed by a rising vote when presented by Senator Lowell Fess of the Fifth-Sixth district.

The resolution recounted Mr. Nelson's official and business activities mentioning him as a well known school teacher and county school superintendent, a member of the Fayette County Board of School Examiners, sheriff of the county, that he represented Fayette County in the House of the Ohio General Assembly and also a two-term state senator in that body, was appointed to membership on several important legislative committees, served as cashier of the Milledgeville Bank both at Milledgeville and later when it was moved to Jeffersonville.

In closing it stated: "RESOLVED, That as a mark of respect to an outstanding public servant, Hon. Oliver S. Nelson, whose entire record in the many responsible posts he held was that of work well done, and whose friendly disposition won for him a wide circle of friends, that this Resolution be adopted by a rising vote and that a copy thereof be spread upon the Journal; and be it further

"RESOLVED, That the clerk of the Senate transmit properly authenticated copies of this resolution to Mrs. Rebecca Van Kirk Nelson, widow; Mrs. Arthur B. Lewis and Mrs. Grant Wilt, daughters, and Robert M. Nelson, son of the deceased."

OWNER SHOWS PRIDE

The Best Place To Get The Best Buick Yet at

Brandenburg's

For some reason or other, new car advertising, or used car advertising for that matter, has too often been in the realm of the "gimmick." I can't understand why.

Here we have a product that calls for a considerable investment. It is a product that its owner carefully selects and is justifiably proud of when he takes it home.

It is a product of which the owner speaks with pride.

Yet, when it is advertised there is too often some wild Ballyhoo about it.

For a long time I have wanted to tell the Buick Story in the advertisements as I tell it to the customer who enters my place of business. We have the best Buick built and that is saying something. We believe in an honest trade-in with full value offered for the car the motorist is actually "selling" to me. And we believe in letting the customer choose the accessories he desires. Every customer knows exactly what he is buying.

If you want to "shop" that's fine. We feel sure you'll conclude there's no reason for a man who wants a Buick to travel any further than our showrooms, every reason to come back to us after he has realistically weighed his own interest.

Cincy's Power-Laden
Lineup Socks Homers
At Record-Bustin' Pace

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Cincinnati Redlegs, long a second-division club, stand just six percentage point shy of the National League lead today with what may be the most powerful lineup ever in major league baseball socking home runs at a record-bustin' pace.

Never in the first division at season's end since 1944 (when they were third), the Redlegs continued their assault on the pennant and an all-time major league homer mark as Smoky Burgess jolted a three-run homer to cap an eighth-inning rally that beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 4-3 Thursday night.

It was the fifth of the season for Smoky, who shares the catching chores with young Ed Bailey, and the 100th of the year for the robust Redlegs. They now are four games ahead of the New York Giants' record 221-homer pace of 1947, reaching the century mark in their 63rd game.

With the three-game sweep of the Pirates — accomplished with three late-inning rallies—the Redlegs pulled into a virtual first-place tie with idle Milwaukee. In the only other game scheduled, the Giants smacked four home runs to drop Brooklyn 6-3 and put third-place Dodgers two games behind the leaders.

Detroit, with All-Star shortstop Harvey Kuenn hitting a pair of homers, broke its 11-game non-winning slump with a 4-0 decision over Kansas City in the only American League game scheduled.

Frank Robinson who got Cincinnati's rally started Thursday night with an RBI single, his third hit of the night. Then Burgess put it away.

The Pirates, who have lost 12 of their last 13 and now stand no better than .500 in fifth place, had taken the lead on Frank Thomas' 13th homer, a three-run job, off starter Johnny Klippstein in the sixth inning. Tom Acker won his first decision of the season in relief while Luis Arroyo, who gave up the Burgess blast, lost it for a 2-2 mark.

The last-place Giants got their home runnie from Foster Castleman. Jackie Brandt, Bill White and Darrel Spencer, pairing them in the fifth and eighth innings. Bill Sarni scored the run that broke a 3-all tie in the sixth on a wild pitch by reliever Don Bessent, now 0-1. Marv Grissom won in relief—his first 1956 decision in 21 appearances.

Virgil Trucks hung a six-hitter on the last-place A's, giving up half of them in the seventh but escaping with his shutout intact. He's 3-2 for the season. Jack McMahon, making his first AL start since coming to the A's from Pittsburgh, gave up Kuenn's homers and left in a two-run Tiger ninth.

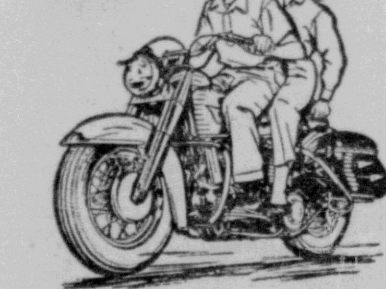

Bahama Scheduled In Garden Ring

NEW YORK (AP) — The run of "new faces" at Madison Square Garden continues when Yama Bahama of Bimini in the Bahama Islands makes his bow as a main eventer tonight against Gil Turner in a middleweight match.

Bahama, unbeaten in his last 22 starts, has been seen on Garden undercards and topped shows in other cities but he will be making his first main go start in the big arena. In his latest appearance, Bahama beat Hardy Smallwood May 11 at Syracuse, N. Y.

Turner, of course, is no stranger to the television audience that will see the bout, starting at 9 p. m.

Genie Looks into Crystal Ball For Sunday SWO Game Results

Close to the end of Thursday's hot and sultry afternoon, just when it was getting quiet enough so you could hear cars turn the corner a block or so away, a light breeze began to blow.

The breeze brought with it a furry humming sound that echoed softly through the streets just as the sun began to set. As it blew, the birds in the trees over the streets began to fly swiftly out of the city, cooing as they went.

Soon, everything was quiet. Just then, down along East St., there came the loud and thumping rhythms of some sort of music. Louder it got as it approached the Record-Herald office until it was practically unbearable.

Then it turned the corner and started to come up the street. The noise was awful. And sure enough, as one look would tell, it was Fenton, the Record-Herald genie who predicts baseball scores.

He was singing "The Rock and Roll Waltz" in Greek and accompanying himself on the tuba ... really awful.

"Just what in the blazes are you so happy about?" He was asked. "Simple, m'friends," he said, dropping his cigar ashes on the rug, "I have just predicted Jeffersonville to lose its second Southwestern Ohio (SWO) League game."

HIS AUDIENCE was unimpressed. That didn't phase him. He started chanting: "Bubble, bubble, Texas League Double: Mish-mash melt and stuffing crumble."

"That's 'crumble,' he was told. "Shaddup," he said, and went on.

"Jeffersonville will be beaten by Good Hope at Jeffersonville." "The Chillicothe Reformatory will whomp Milledgeville, at Chillicothe."

"Hillsboro will beat the Chillicothe Businessmen, at Hillsboro." "Blanchester will beat Bainbridge, at Bainbridge."

"The Chillicothe All-Stars will beat Wilmington at Wilmington—and so will anyone else if my crystal ball is in proper working order."

Picking up his tuba and tuning up with his pitchpipe, he was gone. The door was locked behind him but his noise was still terrible. As he went out, he dropped a copy of the standings, written on an old mushroom that had already been used in a witch stew. It read like this:

Businessmen	3	2
Bainbridge	3	2

Rockford Gelding Wins at Hilliards

COLUMBUS (AP)—Solo Song, a 4-year-old brown gelding owned and driven by Ed Samples of Rockford, crossed the finish line three lengths in front to win the featured seventh race for Class C pacers at Hilliards Raceway last night.

Solo Song paid the longest price of the evening, returning $45 for each $2 win ticket.

Ohio State Golfer Is North's Hope

COLUMBUS (AP)—Rick Jones, ever-smiling Ohio Stater, is the North's last hope as the 59th National Intercollegiate Golf Championship swings into quarterfinal match play today.

By nightfall only two will be left. Arrayed against the Buckeye sharpshooter, who celebrated his 22nd birthday Monday as the tourney started, are four Texans and single entrants from Oklahoma, California and North Carolina.

But tradition says Jones, despite the odds, could win the crown. Ohio Staters did it in 1945 and 1951 when the tourney was held over the 7,120-yard par 72 Buckeye course. No Ohioan has won on any other layout.

Grandview Oval Rebuilt For Meeting

CLEVELAND — A rebuilt track will greet the trotters and the pacers when they step out onto Grandview's half-mile on Monday night when the 44-night 1956 season gets underway. Grandview will continue through Aug. 21 as it goes into its fifth season operation.

Over 10,000 yards of excellent grade clay loam soil has been worked, graded, and shaped into condition to make the half-mile track one of the fastest and safest in the country. All four turns on the track have been banked according to United States Trotting Association specifications.

Both of the track records are expected to fall during the meeting. The pace record is the mark of 2:02.2 set by Times Square on opening night a year ago, while the trot record is 2:04 set by Betty Astra on Aug. 5, 1955.

This is the second year of operation under the leadership of Walter Michael of Bucyrus, McKinley Kirk of Washington, C. H. and Harvey Klink, also of Bucyrus.

Racing Secretary Don H. Roberts will send the trotters and pacers to the post each night. The co-features of the Grandview meeting this year will be the $12,500 added Cleveland Trot to be raced Aug. 2 and the $12,500 added Grandview Pace to be raced Aug. 9. These two races have attracted some of the best in the trotting and pacing field.

Last year an average of 5,075 trotting fans witnessed the races each night and it is expected that this average attendance figure will be increased this season.

Rule Book Out in Girton-Burg Tangle

Yes, they played Babe Ruth ball over at the City Park Thursday night, but nobody's quite sure who won. It's like this:

Girton's and Bloomington were scheduled for a game, and played five innings of hard, fast ball. At the end of the stretch, Girton's was leading, 9-7— but it was almost dark.

The umpires said the game could go ahead another full inning and in the top of the sixth, Bloomington went out in front, 14-9.

Girton's came up in the bottom of the sixth and picked up three more runs so it was 14-12. But then, with two out and a man on third, the umpires decided it was too dark.

Who won? Well, naturally enough, the Bloomington boys thought they did, for obvious reasons. But the rule book says that if a game is called in mid-inning, the score reverts back to the score at the end of the last completed inning.

Or in other words, Girton's won, 9-7.

The case will be arbitrated. As of now, the game isn't being recorded as official.

10-Pound Rockfish Worth $25,000

BALTIMORE — Wanted: A snub-nosed, wall-eyed, chinless fugitive wearing black and white stripes and known as "Diamond Jim." Last seen in the vicinity of Chesapeake Bay. Reward for his capture, dead or alive, $25,000, says the League of Maryland Sportsmen.

Diamond Jim is a 10-pound rockfish, who will be turned loose Monday in Chesapeake Bay. To his jaw will be clamped a gold tag with a diamond in the center to identify him.

He must be caught by hook and line. If he's hooked before midnight Sept. 14, the lucky angler will receive $25,000. If he's boated after that, he's worth $1,000.

"ITS SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD."

HERE IS A VIEW of Aqueduct race track, on Long Island, which will be the new "dream" track in the New York state area. The Greater New York Association, which operates all tracks in the state, will spend $25,000,000 to build an entirely new plant at Aqueduct and another $5,000,000 to improve Belmont. The new Aqueduct track will accommodate 60,000 and seat 20,800. The new racing oval will be a mile and one-eighth. The track will be completed in 1958. And, until the plant is built, there will be no more racing here.

All-Star Game Due To Pit Redlegs vs American League

NEW YORK — It will be Cincinnati against the American League in the All-Star Game at Washington July 10 with five Redlegs in the starting lineup.

Three more Cincinnati players, all handy with the home run bat, finished second in the final balloting as the fans decreed a complete turnover in the 1955 National League starting team.

First baseman Dale Long of Pittsburgh, third baseman Ken Boyer of St. Louis and right fielder Stan Musial of St. Louis were the only men capable of breaking Cincinnati's lock on the starting jobs. In each case the runner-up was a Redleg—Ted Kluszewski at first, Ray Jablonski at third and Wally Post in right.

Johnny Temple and Roy McMillan, Cincinnati's classy second base-shortstop combination, won starting jobs. So did rookie Frank Robinson in left, Gus Bell in center and Ed Bailey as catcher.

Despite this tremendous push by Cincinnati, top honors in total votes went to Mickey Mantle, New York Yankees threat to Babe Ruth's home run record. Mantle polled 206,524 with catcher Yogi Berra, a Yankee teammate, second with 191,146 votes.

Final totals were announced Thursday by the office of Commissioner Ford Frick after fan polls by newspapers, radio and television stations.

Roy Campanella, Brooklyn catcher, who led last year's voting with 2,154,778, was second to Bailey in the 1956 voting with 115,495. Campanella, incidentally, didn't play last year because of injuries.

Other National starters of '55 who failed to win were Kluszewski, second baseman Red Schoendienst of New York, third baseman Eddie Mathews of Milwaukee, shortstop Ernie Banks of Chicago and outfielders Del Ennis of Philadelphia, Duke Snider of Brooklyn and Don Mueller of New York.

American League fans returned almost the entire 1955 ticket intact. The only starter who failed to win again was Jim Finigan, Kansas City third baseman who hasn't been playing regularly.

Mantle and Berra are the only representatives of the leading Yankees. Boston has two, Mickey Vernon on first base and Ted Williams in left, and Detroit also placed a pair — right fielder Al Kaline and shortstop Harvey Kuenn. Other American starters are second baseman Nellie Fox of Chicago and third baseman George Kell of Baltimore.

Under All-Star rules, the players picked by the fans must start and play at least three innings unless injured. The pitchers and other members of the 25-man squads will be named by Managers Casey Stengel of the American and Walter Alston of the National next Monday.

3 Middletown Girls Vie in Tournament

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. — Three Middletown, Ohio, girls — Carolyn Wikoff, Judy Hagan and Linda Nein—today moved into the semifinals of the Southern Juniors and Girls Tennis Tournament.

Miss Wikoff, ranked No. 1 in the juniors division (girls 18 and under), yesterday eliminated fifth-ranked Jean Kraft of Louisville, 6-0, 6-1, while the second-seeded Miss Hagan breezed by sixth-ranked Barbara Dupree of Athens, Ga., 6-1, 6-0.

Miss Nein gained the semifinals of the girls' division (15 and under) by dropping Pam Ketterer of Ormond Beach, Fla., 6-3, 6-2.

Kentuckians Top Ohio Cage Stars

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — A fired-up band of Kentuckians came from behind and edged Ohio's best high school basketball players 98-95 last night.

The np-and-tuck battle was tied five times.
The two teams meet again tomorrow in Middletown, Ohio.

Week Angles To Buy Up Tiger Team

DETROIT — Bill Veeck, who won a pennant at Cleveland and used a midget at St. Louis, is going to bid for a major league comeback with the Detroit Tigers.

The colorful showman has lined up a well-balanced syndicate that he hopes will meet all the requirements necessary to buy the Tiger franchise from the estate of Walter O. Briggs.

Ten other syndicates also are in the running with the doors due to close at midnight Monday. That's the deadline for posting the $50,000 "good faith" money necessary to get a look at the books of the Detroit Baseball Co.

Actual bids can be made any time. None has been announced yet but Veeck says he'll probably make his offer Monday.

"I'm hopeful, almost confident, that it will be acceptable," the red-haired Veeck declared last night as he unveiled his partners — 11 Detroit area business and professional men, a brewery executive from Baltimore and John S. Hilson, a New York broker.

Hilson probably is the big money man in the venture. He was a partner with Veeck in the purchase of the Cleveland Indians in 1947 and the old St. Louis Browns in 1951.

The Indians won a pennant the year after Veeck bought them but in St. Louis he had to rely on such tricks as using his midget as a pinch hitter and having the players psychoanalyzed.

Final Tests Nearing for U. S. Olympics

LOS ANGELES — Uncle Sam's greatest group of Olympic prospects start final competition tonight for the team to make the trip to Australia in the fall.

A throng of more than 50,000 was expected in Memorial Coliseum to watch the U. S. finals in eight events. Nine others will be decided tomorrow afternoon.

"Performance-wise, it's the greatest United States group ever," says U. S. Olympic track coach Jim Kelly. Then he warns,

Moore Gets Top Listing

NEW YORK — Archie Moore, claimant to the world's heavyweight title vacated by Rocky Marciano, received top listing in both the heavyweight and light heavyweight classes in the latest monthly rankings of Ring Magazine.

The rankings listed Floyd Patterson, conqueror of Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, the No. 2 man among the heavyweights and Gerhard Hecht of Germany as the No. 1 challenger for Moore's light-heavyweight crown.

Moore, who recently stopped Yolande Pompey in London, has signed to fight James J. Palmer and should he win, as expected, probably will be matched with Patterson for the Heavyweight New Orleans.

"Don't forget the competition in Australia will be tougher than ever."

Finals tonight are in the hammer throw, javelin, high jump, broad jump, shot put, 100-meter dash, 400-meter hurdles, and 5,000-meter run.

Questionable still is the status of Duke's speedy sprinter, Dave Sims. He's entered in the 100 to night but most track observers feel he hasn't recovered sufficiently from a pulled adductor muscle in his left groin to rate among the top trio. And only three in each event qualify for the Olympic games, with the fourth man as an alternate.

Sprinters include Bobby Morrow of Abilene Christian and Ira Murchison of the Army, both of whom have equaled the world record of 10.2 seconds for 100 meters.

championship next fall. The ratings: Heavyweights: Champion — Title vacant. 1. Archie Moore, San Diego, Calif.; 2. Floyd Patterson, Brooklyn.

Light heavyweights: Champion — Archie Moore, San Diego, Calif.; 2. Gerhard Hecht, Germany; 2. Yolande Pompey, Trinidad, BWI.

Middleweights: Champion — Ray Robinson, New York; 1. Gene Fullmer, West Jordan, Utah; 2. Bobby Boyd, Chicago.

Welterweights: Champion — Johnny Saxton, Brooklyn; 1. Carmen Basilio, Syracuse; 2. Tony DeMarco, Boston.

Lightweights: Champion — Wallace Bud Smith, Cincinnati; 1. Duilio Loi, Italy; 2. Ralph Dupas, New Orleans.

Featherweights: Champion — Sandy Saddler, New York; 1. Hogan (Kid) Bassey, Nigeria; 2. Fred Galiana, Spain.

Cincy's Power-Laden
Lineup Socks Homers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Cincinnati Redlegs, long a second-division club, stand just six percentage point shy of the National League lead today with what may be the most powerful lineup ever in major league baseball seeking home runs at a record-bustin' pace.

Never in the first division at season's end since 1944 (when they were third), the Redlegs continued their assault on the pennant and an all-time major league homer mark as Smoky Burgess jolted a three-run homer to cap an eighth-inning rally that beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 4-3 Thursday night.

It was the fifth of the season for Smoky, who shares the catching chores with young Ed Bailey, and the 100th of the year for the robust Redlegs. They now are four games ahead of the New York Giants' record 221-homer pace of 1947, reaching the century mark in their 63rd game.

With the three-game sweep of the Pirates — accomplished with three late-inning rallies — the Redlegs pulled into a virtual first place tie with idle Milwaukee. In the only other game scheduled, the Giants smacked four home runs to drop Brooklyn 6-3 and put third-place Dodgers two games behind the leaders.

Detroit, with All-Star shortstop Harvey Kuenn hitting a pair of homers, broke its 11-game non-winning slump with a 4-0 decision over Kansas City in the only American League game scheduled.

Frank Robinson who got Cincinnati's rally started Thursday night with an RBI single, his third hit of the night. Then Burgess put it away.

The Pirates, who have lost 12 of their last 13 and now stand no better than 500 in fifth place, had taken the lead on Frank Thomas' 13th homer, a three-run job, off starter Johnny Klippstein in the sixth inning. Tom Acker won his first decision of the season in relief while Luis Arroyo, who gave up the Burgess blast, lost it for a 2-2 mark.

The last-place Giants got their home runs from Foster, Castelman, Jackie Brandt, Bill White and Daryl Spencer, pairing them in the fifth and eighth innings. Bill Sarni scored the run that broke a 3-all tie in the sixth on a wild pitch by reliever Don Bessent, won 0-1. Marv Grissom won in relief — his first 1956 decision in 21 appearances.

Virgil Trucks hung a six-hitter on the last-place A's, giving up half of them in the seventh but escaping with his shutout intact. He's 3-2 for the season. Jack McMahon, making his first AL start since coming to the A's from Pittsburgh, gave up Kuenn's homers and left in a two-run Tiger ninth.

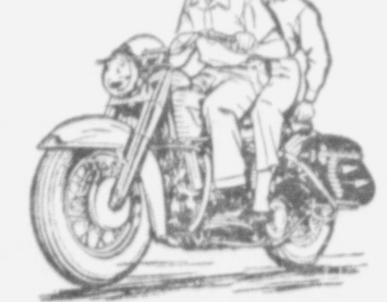

Bahama Scheduled
In Garden Ring

NEW YORK (AP) — The run of "new faces" at Madison Square Garden continues when Yama Bahama of Bimini in the Bahama Islands makes his bow as a main event tonight against Gil Turner in a middleweight match.

Bahama, unbeaten in his last 22 starts, has been seen on Garden undercards and topped shows in other cities but he will be making his first main go start in the big arena. In his latest appearance, Bahama beat Hardy Smallwood May 11 at Syracuse, N. Y.

Turner, of course, is no stranger to the television audience that will see the bout, starting at 9 p. m.

Genie Looks into Crystal Ball
For Sunday SWO Game Results

Close to the end of Thursday's hot and sultry afternoon, just when it was getting quiet enough so you could hear cars turn the corner a block or so away, a light breeze began to blow.

The breeze brought with it a furry humming sound that echoed softly through the streets just as the sun began to set. As it blew, the birds in the trees over the streets began to fly swiftly out of the city, cooing as they went.

Soon, everything was quiet. Just then, down along East St., there came the loud and thumping rhythms of some sort of music. Louder it got as it approached the Record-Herald office until it was practically unbearable.

Then it turned the corner and started to come up the street. The noise was awful. And sure enough, as one flock would tell, it was Fenton, the Record-Herald genie who predicts baseball scores.

He was singing "The Rock and Roll Waltz" in Greek and accompanying himself on the tuba... really awful. "Just what in the blazes are you so happy about?" He was asked. "Simple, m'friends," he said, dropping his cigar ashes on the rug. "I have just predicted Jeffersonville to lose its second Southwestern Ohio (SWO) League game."

HIS AUDIENCE was unimpressed. That didn't phase him. He started chanting: "Bubble, bubble, Texas League

Rockford Gelding
Wins at Hilliards

COLUMBUS (AP)—Solo Song, a 4-

year-old brown gelding owned and driven by Ed Samples of Rockford, crossed the finish line three lengths in front to win the featured seventh race for Class C pacers at Hilliards Raceway last night.

Solo Song paid the longest price of the evening, returning $45 for each $2 win ticket.

Ohio State Golfer
Is North's Hope

COLUMBUS (AP)—Rick Jones, ever-smiling Ohio Stater, is the North's last hope as the 59th National Intercollegiate Golf Championship swings into quarterfinal match play today.

By nightfall only two will be left. Arrayed against the Buckeye sharpshooter, who celebrated his 22nd birthday Monday as the tourney started, are four Texans and single entrants from Oklahoma, California and North Carolina.

But tradition says Jones, despite the odds, could win the crown. Ohio Staters did it in 1945 and 1951 when the tourney was held over the 7,120-yard par 72 Buckeye course. No Ohioan has won on any other layout.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

AXYDLBAAXR is LONG FELLOW

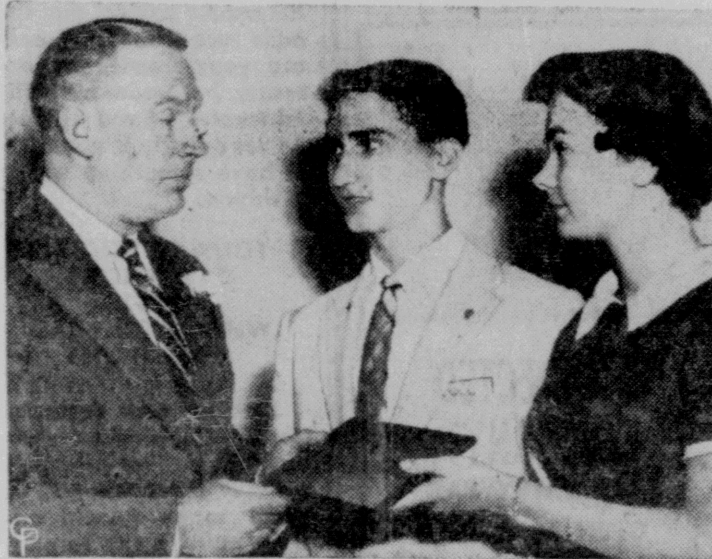

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Indiana GOP Chiefs Vying For Command

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Future political prospects for Sen. William E. Jenner and Gov. George N. Craig were at stake today as Indiana's factional Republicans assembled for their biennial state convention.

Craig is barred by the state constitution from succeeding himself as governor, and Jenner's term in the Senate has two more years to run. But both have a vital interest in the convention's selection of delegates to the national convention and candidates for statewide office and the U. S. Senate.

Sen. Homer E. Capehart, who has tried to sidestep the Craig-Jenner feud, has only taken opposition in his bid for renomination to a third term. His sole opponent is George B. Huff, an Indianapolis public relations man who advocates abolition of foreign aid and farm subsidies.

The culminating episode in a bitter four-year struggle for power between Craig and Jenner will be the five-man race for the gubernatorial nomination.

Craig's top choice for governor, State Revenue Commissioner Frank T. Millis, is expected to be second behind Handley on the first ballot.

If both Handley and Millis fail to win a majority of the 2,032 delegates by the third ballot, it is possible that a dark horse might receive the nomination.

Ohio GI Handed Stiff Penalty

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—A U. S. Army court martial sentenced Pvt. John A. Banges, of Lorain, Ohio, to 30 years at hard labor after finding him guilty of raping a 17-year-old German girl and attacking two other German women.

The six-man court also sentenced Banges to dishonorable discharge and forfeiture of all pay and allowances.

The 30-year-old soldier had pleaded not guilty to the charges which included rape, assault with intent to commit rape.

Judge Sympathizes With Man Trying To Help Out Kids

AKRON (AP)—For giving free haircuts to kids, a 50-year-old furniture upholsterer paid a $10 fine here yesterday.

But in handing out the penalty, Municipal Judge William H. Victor sympathized with the upholsterer and registered a mild complaint against Akron's $1.75 rate for a legal clip.

The upholsterer, Raymond D. Paxton, had been cutting the hair of scores of neighborhood children free in a makeshift chair in the basement of his rooming house.

Judge Victor said he, too, "considered buying a pair of clippers when the price of a haircut went up to $1.75, but I decided against it." He added: "I agree you've been doing this with perfectly good intentions, but we can't ignore the law and sanitary requirements."

During the '20s and early '30s, the United States built 45,000 miles of surfaced highways every year.

Lab Committee Thanked, Invited

The Area Development Committee of the Washington C. H. Chamber of Commerce is making sure that the 10 men charged with selecting a site for the Department of Agriculture's projected animal disease research laboratory won't forget Fayette County.

County Extension Agent W. W. Montgomery and Sam Marting extolled the advantages of Fayette County to the site committee in St. Louis Wednesday. Today the Area Development Committee followed up the personal presentation with telegrams to the 10 committeemen—thanking them for their interest and extending invitations to visit Fayette County before they recommend a site for the 18-million-dollar government installation.

tee through yesterday. A large percentage of the delegations represented state universities and chambers of commerce.

Dr. W. R. Krill, dean of the college of veterinary medicine at Ohio State University, presented Ohio's bid for the new lab, pointing out that while the Buckeye delegation was plugging for no particular site, a location near the university possibly would be best.

HE OFFERED Fayette County as an alternate site. Two Washington C. H. men, County Agent W. W. Montgomery and Sam Marting, livestock breeder, were on hand to plug for the Fayette site.

Others pleading the Ohio cause were Dr. Howard Bevis, president of Ohio State; Dr. James Hay, state veterinarian; and Dr. William Krause, assistant director of the Ohio Experiment Station at Wooster.

Fayette County's nearness to Ohio State University along with its freedom from metropolitan congestion were stressed in the presentation before the panel.

The proposed laboratory, replacing obsolete facilities at Washington, D. C., Auburn, Ala., and Denver, Colo., will provide for simultaneous research on 25 different animal diseases.

18 Ohio Solons OK Vets Pension Hike

WASHINGTON (AP)—Eighteen of Ohio's 23 U. S. representatives including all six Democrats, voted for a House bill raising veterans' pensions yesterday.

The bill was passed 364-51, and sent to the Senate.

Republicans voting for the bill were Reps. Baumhart, Betts, Bow, Brown, Clevenger, Henderson, Hess, Jenkins, McCulloch, McGregor, Schenck and Vorys.

Against the bill were Republicans Ayres, Frances Bolton, Oliver Bolton, Minshall and Scherer.

3. INCREASE the tax on bank shares to recover the "windfall" received by financial institutions. The tax will jump from two to five mills for three years.

Lausche, in his special message to the Legislature, had planned for an increase in the state tax on deposits in financial institutions. But GOP leaders were inclined to insist on a tax which would recover the tax loss from the shares of financial institutions, the area in which the tax loss occurred.

House Speaker Roger Cloud said the Legislature may act on a resolution indicating the state's intention of buying the Lake Erie beach and resort of Cedar Point, either by negotiated purchase or condemnation.

Gov. Lausche, soon after he got word there were plans afoot to turn the resort into a residential development, proposed that the state buy it to preserve it for public use.

A legislative committee took a look at the famed resort Tuesday, but since the main portion of the area is under lease until 1959, Lausche and the Legislature's leaders agreed there was no need for speed.

Bills also were introduced yesterday to take care of two matters on which no dispute is expected:

1. To permit cities to extend their water lines beyond the present five-mile limit from their boundaries. This will permit the sale of water to a huge General Motors plant at Lordstown in the Warren-Youngstown area.

2. Correct a typographical error in a 1955 law which granted certain state-owned canal lands to the Hamilton County city of St. Bernard.

Lausche, late in the day, authorized the Legislature to consider the revision of a law on rural zoning changes to legalize the procedures now in use by 18 unidentified counties.

Tavern Operator Keeps No 'Joint'

DENVER (AP)—George H. Allan, Colorado internal revenue director, vouches for this:

"Tavern operator," replied the taxpayer.

SUE FOR $234.24

Virgil Leach, Route 5 and The Ohio Casualty Insurance Co. have filed suit in common pleas court against Arthur J. Gerade, Detroit, asking for $234.24 damages as result of a collision between Gerade's car and one owned by Leach.

The accident, according to the petition, occurred Jan. 19, 1956, when the Leach was driving on the CCC Highway three miles east of Washington C. H., and started to turn into a lane after he had signaled and slowed down.

Gerade was driving in the same direction and, it is claimed, as result of his negligence, his car crashed into that of Leach, damaging it in the amount of $234.24.

It is noted that the insurance company paid Leach $184.24, recovery of this amount is asked by the company while Leach asks the $50 additional not covered by insurance. Rollo Marchant represents Leach.

(Author's name below)

One foolish way to worry is to think you have some sickness, and then to do nothing about it. Some people are afraid to go to a physician because they are afraid he might tell them they have the trouble they are worrying about.

Relieve your mind quickly. Visit your physician immediately if you think something is wrong. Don't try to treat yourself. Get his expert advice, and the odds are that not only are your worries unnecessary, but under his skilled treatment you will get better quickly if you really have something wrong with you.

Indiana GOP Chiefs Vying For Command

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Future political prospects for Sen. William E. Jenner and Gov. George N. Craig were at stake today as Indiana's faction-torn Republicans assembled for their biennial state convention.

Craig is barred by the state constitution from succeeding himself as governor, and Jenner's term in the Senate has two more years to run. But both have a vital interest in the convention's selection of delegates to the national convention and candidates for statewide office and the U. S. Senate.

Sen. Homer E. Capehart, who has tried to sidestep the Craig-Jenner feud, has only taken opposition in his bid for renomination to a third term. His sole opponent is George B. Huff, an Indianapolis public relations man who advocates abolition of foreign aid and farm subsidies.

The culminating episode in a bitter four-year struggle for power between Craig and Jenner will be the five-man race for the gubernatorial nomination.

Despite his control over the state organization, Craig has his back to the wall. Lt. Gov. Harold W. Handley, Jenner's choice for the spot, appeared to have the most delegates.

Craig's top choice for governor, State Revenue Commissioner Frank T. Millis, is expected to be second behind Handley on the first ballot.

If both Handley and Millis fail to win a majority of the 2,032 delegates by the third ballot, it is possible that a dark horse might receive the nomination.

Ohio GI Handed Stiff Penalty

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—A U. S. Army court martial sentenced Pvt. John A. Banges, of Lorain, Ohio, to 30 years at hard labor after finding him guilty of raping a 17-year-old German girl and attacking two other German women.

The six-man court also sentenced Banges to dishonorable discharge and forfeiture of all pay and allowances.

The 30-year-old soldier had pleaded not guilty to the charges which included rape, assault with intent to commit rape.

Judge Sympathizes With Man Trying To Help Out Kids

AKRON (AP)—For giving free haircuts to kids, a 50-year-old furniture upholsterer paid a $10 fine here yesterday.

But in handing out the penalty, Municipal Judge William H. Victor sympathized with the upholsterer and registered a mild complaint against Akron's $1.75 rate for a legal clip.

The upholsterer, Raymond D. Paxton, had been cutting the hair of scores of neighborhood children free in a makeshift chair in the basement of his rooming house.

Judge Victor said he, too, "considered buying a pair of clippers when the price of a haircut went up to $1.75, but I decided against it." He added: "I agree you've been doing this with perfectly good intentions, but we can't ignore the law and sanitary requirements."

During the '20s and early '30s, the United States built 45,000 miles of surfaced highways every year.

Lab Committee Thanked, Invited

The Area Development Committee of the Washington C. H. Chamber of Commerce is making sure that the 10 men charged with selecting a site for the Department of Agriculture's projected animal disease research laboratory won't forget Fayette County.

County Extension Agent W. W. Montgomery and Sam Marting extolled the advantages of Fayette County to the site committee in St. Louis Wednesday. Today the Area Development Committee followed up the personal presentation with telegrams to the 10 committeemen—thanking them for their interest and extending invitations to visit Fayette County before they recommend a site for the 18-million-dollar government installation.

tee through yesterday. A large percentage of the delegations represented state universities and chambers of commerce.

Dr. W. R. Krill, dean of the college of veterinary medicine at Ohio State University, presented Ohio's bid for the new lab, pointing out that while the Buckeye delegation was plugging for no particular site, a location near the university possibly would be best.

HE OFFERED Fayette County as an alternate site. Two Washington C. H. men, County Agent W. W. Montgomery and Sam Marting, livestock breeder, were on hand to plug for the Fayette site.

Others pleading the Ohio cause were Dr. Howard Bevis, president of Ohio State; Dr. James Hay, state veterinarian; and Dr. William Krause, assistant director of the Ohio Experiment Station at Wooster.

Fayette County's nearness to Ohio State University along with its freedom from metropolitan congestion were stressed in the presentation before the panel.

The proposed laboratory, replacing obsolete facilities at Washington, D. C., Auburn, Ala., and Denver, Colo., will provide for simultaneous research on 25 different animal diseases.

3. INCREASE the tax on bank shares to recover the "windfall" received by financial institutions. The tax will jump from two to five mills for three years.

Lausche, in his special message to the Legislature, had planned for an increase in the state tax on deposits in financial institutions. But GOP leaders were inclined to insist on a tax which would recover the tax loss from the shares of financial institutions, the area in which the tax loss occurred.

House Speaker Roger Cloud said the Legislature may act on a resolution indicating the state's intention of buying the Lake Erie beach and resort of Cedar Point, either by negotiated purchase or condemnation.

Gov. Lausche, soon after he got word there were plans afoot to turn the resort into a residential development, proposed that the state buy it to preserve it for public use.

A legislative committee took a look at the famed resort Tuesday, but since the main portion of the area is under lease until 1959, Lausche and the Legislature's leaders agreed there was no need for speed.

Bills also were introduced yesterday to take care of two matters on which no dispute is expected:

1. To permit cities to extend their water lines beyond the present five-mile limit from their boundaries. This will permit the sale of water to a huge new General Motors plant at Lordstown in the Warren-Youngstown area.

2. Correct a typographical error in a 1955 law which granted certain state-owned canal lands to the Hamilton County city of St. Bernard.

Lausche, late in the day, authorized the Legislature to consider the revision of a law on rural zoning changes to legalize the procedures now in use by 18 unidentified counties.

Tavern Operator Keeps No 'Joint'

DENVER (AP)—George H. Allan, Colorado internal revenue director, vouches for this:

A federal agent, helping a tardy taxpayer to fill out his form, inquired: "Occupation?"

"Tavern operator," replied the taxpayer.

"Joint?" asked the agent, wanting to know whether the taxpayer was filing the return along with his wife.

"No, a first-class tavern," was the reply.

One foolish way to worry is to think you have some sickness, and then to do nothing about it. Some people are afraid to go to a physician because they are afraid he might tell them they have the trouble they are worrying about.
Relieve your mind quickly. Visit your physician immediately if you think something is wrong. Don't try to treat yourself. Get his expert advice, and the odds are that not only are your worries unnecessary, but under his skilled treatment you will get better quickly if you really have something wrong with you.
